

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Abberley Park		Named after Abberley in Worcestershire, England.	55 Abberley Crescent	Thomas James Maling (1836-1922), an importer and merchant, built his home on this land in 1863, naming it Abberley. He was the only son of Admiral Maling of Abberley, Worcestershire. The property was purchased by the council from the estate of John Hobbs Kirk (1856?-1938) in May 1939 for £4,250. The park was opened on 17 February 1940 as part of the city's centennial celebrations. Many of the lime and elm trees had been planted in the 1860s. Abberley is first mentioned the Star in 1873 in a report of a meeting of the Avon Road Board.		St Albans: from swamp to suburbs: an informal history, p 171 "Avon Road Board", Star, 14 March 1873, p 2 "Park for city: St Albans site bought", The Press, 21 March 1939, p A3 "Abberley Park history", STANN : the St Albans neighbourhood news, No 5, June 1994, pp 1-2 "Park has long history", The Papanui Herald, 31 August 1976, p 8	"Obituary, Mr T. J. Maling", The Press, 2 December 1922, p 18 Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 4 "New park at St. Albans", The Press, 30 January 1940, p 7 Abberley Park, St Albans, Christchurch: official souvenir programme, Saturday, 17th February 1940 "Abberley Park opened", The Press, 20 February 1940, p 6

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Adderley Head		Named after Charles Bowyer Adderley, 1st Baron Norton (1814-1905).		Adderley, a British politician, was a member of the Canterbury Association from 27 March 1848. An independent constitution for New Zealand was drafted at his home in 1850. He purchased Rural Section 115, 100 acres in Fendall Town Road, and Rural Sections 406 and 413-414, land in Kaiapoi. He never visited New Zealand. First mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1856. An article in the Star in 1881 says it was also named South Head.		Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863 , pp 3 & 8-9 The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections , pp 15-16 "Correspondence", Lyttelton Times, 26 November 1856, p 8 "The Port of Lyttelton", Star, 16 May 1881, p 3
Addington		Named after Addington, an 18th century mansion in Addington near Croydon, South London. It was the official residence of		Dr Sumner became Archbishop of Canterbury in 1848 and was president of the Canterbury Association when it was founded in 1848. The name Addington was	Poulson Street	Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863 , p 1 The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place	The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections , p 93 "One man's

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
		six archbishops, including Dr John Bird Sumner (1780-1862).		chosen in 1849. [Another theory is that Addington was named after Addington, near London where the Rev. George Paulson (Poulson) came from. The reason given was that it was named after his birthplace as he was the owner of land in Addington. However, just as the suburb of Sumner was named after Dr Sumner, so Addington is more likely to have been named after Dr Sumner's residence. The Rev. Paulson (Poulson) would not have been regarded as of sufficient standing to have a suburb named after him.] The "new suburb of Addington" is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1863.		names, p 3 "Advertisements", Lyttelton Times, 25 July 1863, p 5 "Street names", The Press, 2 September 1930, p 12 Information supplied in 2009 by Richard Greenaway.	history of a life spent in Addington", Christchurch Star, 30 October 1998, p B9

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Addington Park	Jerrold Street Reserve		Jerrold Street	Formerly a reserve belonging to the Sydenham Borough Council. The Jerrold Street Reserve is first mentioned in The Press in 1911. Addington Park was one of nine parks given their official names by the Christchurch City Council in 1948.	Addington	" City Council ", The Press, 22 August 1911, p 5 "Nine parks named, small reserves in Christchurch", The Press, 14 September 1948, p 6	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , p 4
Ahuriri Summit Reserve	Ahuriri Bush		Port Hills	An area of 29 acres vested in Christchurch City Council in 1948. The land was first given to the public in 1914 by Richard May Downes Morten (1877-1950) and his brother, Arthur Roscoe Vernon Morten (1878-1931).		"Summit Road Reserves", The Press, 6 August 1948, p 3 The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 287	" Death of Mr A. V. R. Morten ", The Press, 13 April 1931, p 14

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Aidanfield		Named after Mother Aidan Phelan (1858-1958) who, in turn, was named after the Irish Saint Aidan.		Mother Aidan was one of four Sisters to arrive in Christchurch from Ireland in September 1886. She was Superior of the Mount Magdala convent 1907-1920 and 1929-1936. The land around the St John of God Hospital had been owned by the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, based in Melbourne, for over 100 years and it was planned that funds from the development would go towards their work. The first sections were put on the market in 2000; the last in 2013. Named on 31 January 2001.		Biographical information supplied in 2007 by Fraser Faithfull, archivist with the Good Shepherd Provincialate in Abbotsford, Victoria in correspondence with Margaret Harper. Other information supplied in 2007 by Bob Pritchard, subdivisions officer, Christchurch City Council.	Pitch your tents on distant shores: a history of the Sisters of Good Shepherd in Australia, Aotearoa/New Zealand and Tahiti “Catholic land may become suburb”, The Press, 28 July 2000, p 6 “Haven for ‘fallen women’ to be housing subdivision”, NZ Catholic, 5 November 2000, p 13 Actions and reactions September 2000

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
							“Strong interest expected”, The Press, 20 April 2013, p G2 Held firm by faith, pp 152- Mount Magdala
Albion Square-Ohinehouroko	Lyttelton’s civic square site	Named after the Albion Hotel which was once at 44 London Street and is first mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1858; also Ohinehouroko, meaning establishment of a place of new peacefulness.	44 London Street, Lyttelton	Ohinehouroko is believed to be the oldest name for a pa site within the Lyttelton township area. Named in 2013.		Lyttelton/Mt Herbert Community Board agenda 22 August 2013 Lyttelton/Mt Herbert Community Board minutes 22 August 2013 "Port square on way", Christchurch Mail, 29 August 2013, p 2 "Heading towards finish line", Christchurch Mail, 12 June 2014, p 11	" Advertisements ", Lyttelton Times, 10 April 1858, p 5

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Aldred Reserve		Named after the Rev. John Aldred (1818-1894).	On east side of Durham Street, north of Salisbury Street, close to Peacock, Conference and Beveridge Street but on eastern side of road.	The Rev. Aldred built his home in Durham Street North, near where he later developed Aldred Street as a private street. Wording on plaque: “Aldred Park. In 1993 a suggestion was put to the Christchurch City Council by the Victoria Neighbourhood Group to establish a reserve on this site. Subsequently it was purchased, cleared and landscaped. It has been named for the Rev. Aldred who owned large tracts of land in this area during the city's early settlement.	Beveridge Street	.	“Obituary, The Rev. John Aldred”, The Press, 15 January 1894, p 6 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: A69 The history of Methodism in New Zealand, p 508

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The neighbourhood surrounding this park is one of the oldest in the city. The social class structure of 100 years ago is still evident in the style of housing in the area from the smallest of workers' cottages to large villas and grander homes. Notable people who have lived here include James K. Baxter (writer and poet) and Fanny Buss (artist). In memory of George Thorn, John Huggins, Frank Ware and Fraser Burridge who helped make this a neighbourhood.”

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Allandale	Ohinetahi	Named after James Allan (1837-1910).	At the head of Governors Bay	Allan was a farmer of Charteris Bay. A Post Office was opened at Allandale in 1897.		G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: A93 "Mail Notices", The Press, 17 May 1897, p 6 Place-names of Banks Peninsula , p 45	"Deaths", The Press, 20 October 1910, p 1
Amelia Rogers Reserve		Named after Amelia Frances Rogers, née Inwood, (1849-1928).	New Brighton Road	Amelia Rogers was the Burwood postmistress at various times between 1891 and 1928. Her cottage was a landmark captured in photographs and paintings until it was demolished in 1993. She lived at 348 New Brighton Road. A plaque on the reserve commemorates Mrs. Rogers and her home.	Amelia Lane and Dixon Reserve	Unsung heroines Burwood/Pegasus Community Board agenda 21 March 2007	Amelia Rogers Amelia Rogers "Obituary", New Zealand Church News, January 1929, pp 19 & 20, held at Anglican Archives. "Deaths", The Press, 11 December 1928, p 1

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Anzac Drive Reserve			Burwood Expressway	The land for this reserve, and for the Dixon Reserve, was given to the council by Norma Civilis Dixon and her husband in 2007 as part of the reserve contribution when the Longview Estate subdivision was developed.	Amelia Rogers Reserve, Dixon Reserve, Donnell Sports Park, Norcorss Street and Schumacher Place.	Burwood/Pegasus Community Board agenda 21 March 2007
Aranui	Part of New Brighton. Flemington was incorporated into Aranui.	Flemington was named after Jubal Fleming (1844?-1903).		“When the New Brighton Tramway Company extended the Linwood Cemetery line, a small community, now known as Aranui, grew up along Pages Road on the way to New Brighton. The tramway company could acquire a strip of land only one chain wide. Until the Christchurch Tramway District Act of 1902 was passed, there was actually no public road. Notwithstanding this, a few settlers built	Lenton Street and Rowan Avenue. Also Aranui Primary School.	“ News of the day ”, The Press, 29 March 1912, p 6 “ General News ”, The Press, 11 November 1915, p 6 The Estuary of Christchurch: a history of the Avon-Heathcote estuary, its communities, clubs, controversies and contributions , p 149 “Aranui School celebrates 101 years”, Christchurch Mail, 30	Aranui School 50th jubilee , p 7 Early days of Canterbury , p 122 “Centenary of Aranui”, The Press, 29 February 1952, p 8 “Letters”, The Press, 3 March 1952, p 2; 6 March 1952, p 5; 8 March 1952, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				there and used the tramline as a right-of-way. Land was cheap though infertile for cultivation purposes, and transport good so that settlement soon increased.” The evolution of a city, p 82 The first official use of the word came in March 1912 when G. W. Russell M.P. received notice from the Telegraph Department that the new telephone bureau at Breeze’s Road was to be called Aranui. The Breezes Road School had opened in November 1911. A photograph dated from then shows the children enrolled at the school holding a sign with Aranui School on it, although the school was not officially given that name until November		August 2012, p 13

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				1915.
				Fleming was a hairdresser/tobacconist whose shop was in Colombo Street South. The Breezes Road-Pages Road corner was the area of the Jubal Fleming subdivision. The tramstop at Breezes Road at the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th century was known as Flemington.			“Mr Jubal Fleming’s bankruptcy”, Star, 28 March 1890, p 3 “Personal”, Star, 20 April 1903, p 3 “Pars about people”, Observer, 25 April 1903, p 4
Aranui War Memorial Recreation Reserve			Breezes Road	A two-acre recreation reserve was opened in 1954 as a tribute to men and women of the district who did not return from the Second World War. It was used originally by the Aranui Play Centre and the Aranui Scout Group.		“Aranui War memorial”, The Press, 13 December 1954, p 14	Aranui War Memorial

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Arthur Adcock Memorial Reserve	Adcock Park	Named after Arthur Edward Adcock (1895-1977).	Queenspark Drive	Adcock was a long-serving councillor of the Waimairi District Council. Re-named in June 2005. The Burwood Pegasus Community Board requested the name be changed to better reflect the person it was named after and his contribution to parks.		Burwood/Pegasus Community Board agenda 16 November 2005
ASB Football Park	English Park	Formerly English Park. Named after Robert English (1874-1934). Re-named ASB Football Park. Named after its sponsor, the Australian Savings Bank.	Cranford Street	English was engineer for the Christchurch Gasworks and president of the Canterbury Football Association 1911-1928. He was largely responsible for the acquisition of English Park for the Canterbury Football Association code and the park was given his name in 1915 as a compliment to his work. He donated the English		Requiem for a gasworks , p 90 English Park: draft development plan “ Association game: opening of English Park ”, The Press, 3 May 1915, p 4 “ English Park ”, The Press, 15 May 1943, p 4 “ Obituary ”, The Press, 26 May 1934, p 17	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , p 7

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				Cup for the knock-out competition in Canterbury first-grade Association football. The Park was purchased by the city council in 1943 for £3000. Re-named ASB Football Park in 2010. Mainland Football chief executive Mike Coggan said Robert English's legacy would still be honoured through the English Cup - contested by Canterbury clubs since 1913.		“English taken out of park by sponsor”, The Press, 19 October 2010, p B13

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Ashgrove Reserve			Ashgrove Terrace	Alfred Thomas Smart (1869?-1937), a contractor, began planting native seedlings he obtained from the West Coast and Mt Grey on his property at 46 Ashgrove Terrace from 1906. This garden was regarded as being probably unique in the Dominion. The land was later owned by Dr Ivan Lorin George Sutherland (1897-1952) and his wife, Nancy. After their deaths it was planned to subdivide the land for housing. Instead, in 1963, it was bought by public subscription and presented to the city as a reserve to preserve the native bush.	Bradford Park and Kyle Park. Also Smart's Bridge.	"Bush area as park", The Press, 25 November 1963, p 13	"Obituary", The Press, 29 September 1937, p 14 "Dr Sutherland's career", The Press, 4 March 1952, p 8 "Native bush threatened", The Press, 5 November 1975
Avebury Park		Named after Avebury Farm, his home in West England, by Dr John	Eveleyn Couzins Avenue	Dr Gundry owned the land there for a time. William Flesher (1837-1889) bought the property		Avebury Park "Advertisements", Star, 13 August 1881, p 2	"William Flesher", Star, 27 February 1889, p

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
		Seager Gundry (1807-1886).		from him and built his family home there. He owned Avebury in 1881. Hubert de Rie Flesher (1901-1989) sold the house and land to the Crown in 1945. The area kept for the park was purchased by Christchurch City Council for £1,250 in 1948 and it is one of nine parks given their official names by the council that year. For a time the house was the Cora Wilding Youth Hostel. It was refurbished and reopened as a community facility in 2002.		"Neighbourhood park proposed", The Press, 23 September 1944, "Nine parks named, small reserves in Christchurch", The Press, 14 September 1948, p 6 "Avebury House", The Press, November 1999, p 4 "Old house gets new lease of life", Christchurch star, 28 August 2002, p B3	4 "The late Mr Flesher", Star, 2 March 1889, p 2 Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 4 Report to the Abattoir, Reserves and Milk Committee. 23 July 1945, CH377 – Parks and Reserves files, Box 1, 1/12, Avebury Park 1945-1984, held at Christchurch City Council archives.
Avice Hill Reserve		Named after Avice Hill (1906-2001).	395 Memorial Avenue	Avice Hill gifted her property to the Waimairi Council as a herb garden and art and craft centre for the community.	Crosbie Park	Cityscene	"'Queen of herbs' followed own path", The Press, 11 January 2001, p 5

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Avon Park	Avon Centennial Park	Named as part of Christchurch's centennial celebrations.	Avonside Drive and Kerrs Road.	Twelve acres of land for the park was purchased in 1938 for £2,750. The park was named on 18 March 1940 and officially opened on 6 April 1940.		“General news”, The Press, 4 February 1938, p 12 “Avon Centennial Park”, The Press, 5 April 1940, p 4 Chairman's report to Abattoir, Reserves and Milk committee, No 4, pp 1486-1599, 22 January 1940-19 January 1942, C/97 held at Christchurch City Council archives.	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 4 “New park at Avonside”, The Press, 23 September 1938, p 12 “Avon Centennial Park”, The Press, 5 April 1940, p 4

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Avon River	Otakaro and the River Shakespeare.	Originally named Otakaro, meaning the place of a game. Also named the River Shakespeare and the Avon River. Named after the River Avon (also known as Avon Water or Avondale) in Lanarkshire, Scotland. It is a tributary of the River Clyde. The name Avon is of Celtic origin and means river.		Williams Deans (1817?-1851) and his brother, John Deans (1820-1854), formerly of Kirkstyle, Riccarton, Kilmarnock, named the Avon River on their arrival in Canterbury in 1843. The Avon River bounded their grandfather's property in Scotland just as the new Avon did their own in Riccarton. The river is named the River Shakespeare on a 1849 map of Canterbury prepared by Captain Joseph Thomas (b. 1803?), surveyor for the New Zealand Company.		Sketch map shewing the site of the Canterbury settlement "A page of early history: Canterbury before the Pilgrims", The Press, 7 May 1900, p 3 "The Riccarton Estate", Star, 7 August 1874, p 2 "The Avon: how the river was named", The Lyttelton Times , 4 May 1891, p 5 "European place names", The Press, 8 January 1924, p 8 From the banks of the Avon: the story of a river , pp 1-2	View the biography of John Deans in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography . View the biography of William Deans in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Avondale		Named because it is near the Avon River.	South of the Avon River and just east and also west of Avondale Road.	The Avondale Golf Club, on Wainoni Road, was opened on 12 June 1920. 40 acres of land on the corner of New Brighton Road and Avondale Road was auctioned in 1959 and the suburb then developed was named Avondale.		" Golf ", The Press, 6 April 1920, p 8 " Advertisements ", The Press, 11 June 1920, p 1 "For sale", The Press, 19 September 1959, p 6
Avonhead		Named after the source or head of the Avon River/Otakaro.		William Bayley Bray (1812?-1885) named his home, Avonhead. He gives that as his address in a letter referred to in The Lyttelton Times in 1853. The Avonhead Estate, 500 acres of land "on the north side of Harewood Road, four and a half miles from Christchurch, and immediately opposite the racecourse" is advertised for sale in The Lyttelton Times in 1862.	Fifield Terrace	" Advertisements ", Lyttelton Times, 16 July 1853, p 6 " Advertisements ", Lyttelton Times, 21 May 1862, p 8 "Burnside, Ilam, Avonhead", The Press, 19 May 1959, p 9	"Obituary", The Lyttelton Times , 1 June 1885, p 5 " Death ", Star, 28 May 1885, p 2 " In Memoriam ", Star, 30 May 1885, p 3 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : B694 "Discovering the source of the Avon", The Press,

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The suburb was officially named by the Waimairi County Council in 1959.			24 April 1976, p 11 “The people who cultivated Avonhead”. The Press, 1 May 1976, p 12

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Avonside		Named after the Holy Trinity Church at Avonside.	Along the banks of the Avon River from Richmond to North Linwood.	The church was built in 1855; the district first appears in The Lyttelton Times also in 1855. The Holy Trinity Church at Avonside was the first consecrated church in Canterbury. It was built at the place on the Avon River where boats discharged their cargoes. The church was demolished after it was badly damaged in the earthquakes of 2010 and 2011. Avonside was one of the first and most settled rural areas in Canterbury and one of the earliest suburbs of Christchurch.		“Visit of the Bishop of New Zealand”, Lyttelton Times, 21 November 1855, p 7 “Avonside churchyard”, The Star, 16 December 1893, p 6 “Avonside was first consecrated church in Canterbury”, The Sun, 20 February 1932, p 17 History of the Avonside Parish District, Preface.

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Baden Norris Reserve		Named after Baden Norris.	Next to the Lyttelton Museum in Norwich Quay.	Baden Norris was the curator of the Lyttelton Museum and honorary curator of Canterbury Museum's Antarctic Gallery. The name of the reserve recognises his work in collecting and preserving Lyttelton's history. Developed in 1997.		"Reserve for Lyttelton", The Press, 29 August 1997, p 5	Baden Norris Reserve
Balmoral Hill	Beaven's Hill	Formerly Beaven's Hill. Named after Arthur Ward Beaven (1856-1944). Re-named Balmoral Hill.	Port Hills	Beaven arrived in New Zealand in 1878 and the same year established the firm of Andrews & Beaven. He was a Christchurch city councillor 1923-1931. Re-named Balmoral Hill in 1955. This was the name submitted by Mr & Mrs C. R. McIntyre and selected by residents in 1955.		"Names chosen for streets", The Press, 20 September 1955, p 15 The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 80 The Estuary of Christchurch: a history of the Avon-Heathcote estuary, its communities, clubs, controversies and contributions , pp 121-123	" Obituary ", The Press, 1 March 1944, p 5

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Barnett Park	Moncks Valley	Formerly named Moncks Valley. Named after John Stanley Monck (1845-1929). Re-named Barnett Park. Named after Morris John Barnett (1890-1964).	Main Road	Barnett was director of parks and reserves in Christchurch 1929-1954. Formed on land which had been the Redcliffs Rifle Range from 1901.	Moncks Bay	“ Obituary ”, The Press, 4 September 1929, p 4 “Stanley Monck of Moncks Bay, pioneer farmer and sportsman”, The Press, 28 February 1976, p 11 The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 76 Sumner-Redcliffs Historical Society	Barnett Park “Mr M. J. Barnett – an appreciation”, The Press, 17 October 1964, p 12
Barrington		Named after the maiden name of Louisa Edith Simeon, née Barrington, (1790-1847), mother of Captain Charles Simeon (1816-1867). She was the daughter and heir of Sir Fitzwilliam Barrington (1755-1832), 10th Baronet Barrington of Barrington Hall,		Capt. Simeon purchased Rural Section 154, land in Spreydon. He held the office of Resident Magistrate at Lyttelton and Christchurch at different times. He was also the first Provincial Treasurer after local government had been granted to the provinces and was elected speaker on the opening of the Provincial Council in		The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections , p 89 “ Rural Sections chosen ”, The Lyttelton Times, 3 May 1851, p 3	“ Editorial ”, Otago Daily Times, 7 August 1867, p 4

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
		Essex. Charles Simeon's four sons, Philip, Algernon, Geoffrey and Hugh, were given the middle name of Barrington, in honour of their maternal grandfather whose male line expired on his death in 1833.		1853.

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Barrington Park	Baker Estate and Spreydon Park.	Named because it is in Barrington which, in turn, is named after the maiden name of Louisa Edith Simeon, née Barrington, (1790-1847), mother of Captain Charles Simeon (1816-1867).	Barrington Street	This land for Spreydon Park was purchased from the Baker estate. Re-named Barrington Park in 1926. The stone entrance gateways from Barrington Street and Simeon Street were presented and erected by William Hinnels Winsor (1876-1936), mayor of Spreydon 1915-1919.	Barrington. Barrington Street and Winsor Crescent.	" Recreation ground for Spreydon ", The Press, 14 December 1912, p 12 " Spreydon Burgesses's Association ", Sun, 17 July 1915, p 12 " City Council ", The Press, 21 June 1921, p 5 " City loan proposals ", The Press, 15 September 1921, p 6 " City and Suburban Association ", The Press, 17 November 1926, p 12 Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , p 5	" Editorial ", Otago Daily Times, 7 August 1867, p 4 The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections , p 89

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Barrys Bay		Named after William Barry.	Head of Akaroa Harbour.	Barry was employed by the Greenwood family and probably also the Rhodes family as a shepherd in the 1840s. After he left Purau he settled in the bay that is named after him. Barry's Bay is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1854. Barryton, at "Head of Bay, Akaroa Harbour, 282 acres", was auctioned in 1886.		G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: B188 "The Lyttelton Times", The Lyttelton Times, 3 June 1854, p 7 "Advertisements", Akaroa Mail and Banks Peninsula Advertiser, 12 November 1886, p 3
Beacon Rock		Named because an iron beacon was erected there in 1863 to guide shipping.	On the seaward side of Cave Rock.	First mentioned in the Star in 1887.		Sumner to Ferrymeade: a Christchurch history , p 206 "Exciting scene at Sumner", Star, 12 August 1887, p 2	"The Christchurch-Sumner canal", Star, 22 February 1902, p 6

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Beckenham	Fisherton	Named after Beckenham in Kent.		Named by Captain Stephen Temple Fisher (1818-1897) after his home town in England. He and his brother, James Temple Fisher (1828-1905), bought Rural Section 49, 100 acres in the "church district". S. T. Fisher is listed on the 1853 electoral roll living at Beckenham Farm, River Heathcote. His occupation is given as paymaster and purser in the Royal Navy. Their farm, north of the present-day Sandwich Road, was later subdivided and named the Beckenham Estate. Stephen Temple Fisher's house was built in what is now Fisher Avenue. Both names were still being used for the suburb in 1926.	Beckenham Street, Fisher Avenue and Sandwich Road.	Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, p 2 "Rural Sections chosen", The Lyttelton Times, 15 March 1851, p 7 "Electoral roll for the district of Christchurch, July 5th, 1853", The Lyttelton Times, 16 July 1853, p 8 Beckenham: a suburb of Christchurch, New Zealand, p 11, 14-15 The Port Hills of Christchurch, p 213 "City Council", The Press, 14 September 1926, p 14	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: F135 & F139 "Obituary", The Press, 2 July 1897, p 5 "Death of an old settler", Feilding Star, 4 January 1905, p 2 "Obituary", The Press, 5 January 1905, p 10

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Beckenham Loop		Named because it lies in the suburb of Beckenham.	A big loop in the Heathcote River at Beckenham, south Christchurch, at the base of the Port Hills. It lies east of Colombo Street and south of Fisher Avenue and is at the intersection of three ancient Māori areas, Otautahi, Ihutai and Opawawaho. In a part of Opawawaho called O-Mokihi - the place of flax staff rafts.	The area contained Liberal Government era workers' houses - thus the names Seddon Street and Miller Street. The Camelot Settlement (a workers' houses area) was in Seddon Street and Longfellow Street. The majority of the houses are wooden Californian-style bungalows of the 1920s and 1930s. The first generation of European children in the area would lash together six or more four-gallon petrol drums, use wooden boxing and ropes and drift down the whole of the loop. The Beckenham loop is the second largest of the Christchurch City Council's SAMS - Special Amenity Areas.	Miller Street and Seddon Street. Also Camelot Settlement and Beckenham.	Beckenham: a suburb of Christchurch, New Zealand, pp 7-8, p 31 Information researched in 2010 by Richard Greenaway.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Beckenham Park			Norwood Street	Land for this park was purchased in 1909 at a cost to the city of £780, with the government contributing £500. The tender of E. J. Ruddick of £75 for the entrance gates was accepted by the city council in 1915.	Beckenham	"Proposed park at Beckenham", The Press, 15 June 1909, p 8 Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 5 "General news", The Press, 13 April 1915, p 6

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Belfast		Named because the suburb of Belfast grew up around the Belfast Meat Factory.		In 1859 it was an area referred to as Purarekanui, the Styx, the Seven-Mile-Peg, the Six-Mile-Peg or the North Road District. The Provision and Produce Company named their factory, the Belfast Meat Factory. William Henry Mein (1832-1896) and James McNeight Watt (1838-1892) were partners in the business which was opened in 1872. The settlement that grew up around the factory became known as Belfast. Belfast as a name for the district first appears on a Survey Plan lodged in the Lands and Deeds Office, Christchurch, on 12 December 1881.		A short history of Belfast, 1949 “Our local industries”, The Press, 20 March 1874, p 2 “100-year link with Belfast broken”, Christchurch Star, 28 July 1977, p 30	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: M318 & W240 The Canterbury Frozen Meat Company: the first seventy-five years

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Belfast Business Park			Corner of Belfast Road and Blakes Road, just east of State Highway 1.	A $36 million, 22-hectare subdivision on the former site of the Canterbury Freezing Works, part of a larger property which once included the Belfast Freezing Works. Built by Rapaki Property Group. The land had been owned by South Canterbury Finance and was taken and sold by the Crown to recoup assets after it bailed out the investors. Construction began in 2014.		"Business park groundwork under way", The Press, 20 August 2014, p C12
Benmore Gardens Reserve		Named because it is a family name belonging to Mr and Mrs Macleod.	8 Benmore Gardens	Created during the formation of the Nunweek/Skyedale Estates subdivision. Designed to be a recreation reserve and an occasional drainage area.	Benmore Gardens, Berisdale Place, Skyedale Drive, St Clair Close and Talisker Place.	Fendalton/Waimairi Community Board agenda 4 May 1999 Fendalton/Waimairi Community Board agenda 1 July 2003

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bergman's Stream		Named to recognise and acknowledge the Bergman family.	Runs through the Picton Reserve in Riccarton.	G. C. Bergman requested the naming on behalf of his parents. Named in 1999.	Picton Reserve	Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 4 August 1999

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bernie Hansen Reserve		Named after Bernard Robert "Bernie" Hansen (1920-2002).	21 Heberden Avenue	Hansen was a teacher and community leader who served on the Sumner Residents' Association for many years. His obituary says he was "the leading light and the focal point for Sumner". He advocated strongly for the suburb and for the environment, especially the Port Hills and the Estuary, from a "philosophical base". John Freeman identified suitable land for the reserve at the junction of Wiggins Street and Heberden Avenue. For over 20 years Hansen had planted seedlings of native plants there. It was also near his former Wiggins Street home.		Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board agenda 3 July 2002 Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board agenda 5 March 2003	"Advocate for environment", The Press, 1 June 2002, p D11

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The proposed commemoration was first discussed by the Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board in 2002 and the reserve was named in 2003.
Beverley Park		Named after Fred Beverley (1864-1915).	Stanmore Road	Fred Beverley was a son of Abraham Beverley. In 1906 he bought The Grange at 82 River Road (later Avonside Drive). Members of the family lived here until the 1950s. The house was bought by the city council, demolished in 1958, and the park formed.	Beverley Street	“Tumultuous days of early NZ rail”, The Press, 29 November 1980, p 16	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : B413

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bexley		Named after Bexley in England. Bexley is one of thirty-two London Boroughs.		Named by George Thomas Hawker (1840-1924), a baker of St Albans. He was nicknamed the father of New Brighton. When Hawker was about 50, he moved from Caledonian Road, St Albans, to a business on Seaview Road. He named several places in Christchurch after places in England where he had lived. First mentioned in the Star in 1902 in a report of a meeting of the New Brighton Borough Council.	Egham Hill and Marlow Road.	"Borough Councils", Star, 2 September 1902, p 3 "Suburbs past and present", The Christchurch Mail, 30 March 1999, p 9	"Old New Brighton", The Star, 29 April 1922, p 8 "Mr G. T. Hawker", The Press, 20 October 1924, p 10

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bickerton Reserve		Named after Professor Alexander William Bickerton (1842-1929).	Avonside Drive	Thomas John Edmonds (1858-1932) donated the land in 1930 to mark the 80th anniversary of the founding of the province of Canterbury and to safeguard the river boulevard. He also wanted a memorial to be placed on the north-west corner of the reserve honouring his friend, Professor Bickerton.		"Another gift", The Press, 16 December 1930, p 10 "Gift to Christchurch", Auckland Star, 16 December 1930, p 8	View the biography of Alexander William Bickerton in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography
Birdsey Reserve		Named after John Birdsey (1824-1865).	40 Bridle Path Road	Birdsey opened the Birdsey British Hotel in the Heathcote Valley in 1862, presumably to get the business of the Lyttelton tunnel workers. He was bankrupt when he died in 1865.		"Deaths", The Press, 13 June 1865, p 2	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: B449

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bishopdale	Bishopsdale	Named after the Bishop family: James Bishop (1826-1910) and his wife, Rebecca (1825?-1913). Their children were: James (b. 1848), Robert (1851-1940), Frederick Alfred (1851-1911), William (1854-1884), and Rebecca Sarah (1860?-1951).		The family bought land on an accommodation road (later Bishop's Road) near Harewood Road. They planted pip-fruit orchards there. The name Bishopdale was first used with the establishment of Bishopdale School which was built on the old Bishop property. The name became official when the Ministry of Works named the Bishopdale Shopping Centre.	Greers Road	Bishop's of Bishopdale Reminiscences of pioneer farming at Papanui and Pleasant Point 1855-1916? "Where do all the 'esses' go", The Papanui Herald, 16 November 1966, p 12 "Letters to The Editor", The Papanui Herald, 3 July 1990, p 10 Our Environment Issue 23 Winter 2000	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: B455, 456, 457 Early fruitgrowing in Canterbury, New Zealand, pp 16-21
Bishops Green Reserve		Named because it is a central reserve on land owned by the Catholic Diocese of Christchurch since the 1880s.	27 Cuneen Place	The reserve was part of the first stage of development of the subdivision and developed to enhance sales in the future stages. Named in 2003.		Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 6 August 2003

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Blighs Garden Reserve		Named after its founder, John Bligh (1838?-1896).	1 Kibblewhite Street	Bligh was a restaurant and private hotel owner of Papanui. This was a privately owned public gardens established in the late 1870s. It wasn't financially successful and the land was subdivided in 1923 and the reserve formed.	Blighs Road	“Obituary”, Star, 26 December 1896, p 6 "Advertisements", The Press, 31 March 1923, p 21 New Brighton: a regional history, 1852-1970, p 38 The gardens of Canterbury : a history, p 132 “Croquet club in move to change reserve’s status”, Pegasus Post, 13 June 1994	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , p 17
Bottle Lake Forest			Rothesay Road and Waitikiri Drive.	Originally a sheep run let for grazing as early as 1853. In 1878 the Christchurch City Council bought 1,330 acres under the Waste Lands Act 1858. Grazing continued until 1912 when plantings of pine trees began.	Bottle Lake	1948 Transactions of the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture (Inc) , pp 44-52

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bowenvale	Bowen's Valley, Bowens Valley and sometimes Rainbow Valley.	Named after Charles Bowen (1804-1871).		Bowen, an original land purchaser in 1850, bought Rural Section 82, 50 acres on the "south bank River Heathcote, foot of hills". He was the first Speaker of the Canterbury Provincial Council but eventually returned to England. His sons were the politician, Sir Charles Christopher Bowen (1830-1917) and the Rev. Croasdaile Bowen (1831-1890). The Bowenvale Estate, Cashmere, is first mentioned in The Press in 1922. A fruit-farming settlement there was established by John Flinders Scott (1876-1941), a pastoral farmer and Heathcote county councillor.		The Port Hills of Christchurch, p 199 Province of Canterbury. New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, p 3 "Rural Sections chosen", The Lyttelton Times, 29 March 1851, p 6 "Local and General", Star, 6 June 1871, p 2 "St Martin's Burgesses Association", Star, 6 March 1914, p 7 "Advertisements", The Press, 1 July 1922, p 18	"Obituary", Star, 6 June 1871, p 2 "Death", The Press, 6 June 1871, p 2 View the biography of Charles Christopher Bowen in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography. "The Summit Road: opening ceremony", The Star, 28 November 1908, p 5 "Obituary", The Press, 30 July 1941, p 8 Early days in Bowen Valley

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bowenvale Park		Named because it was formerly part of a 606ha grazing property which incorporated Bowenvale and Mt Vernon.	Summit Road	The 180ha park was officially opened to the public on 7 July 1985.	Bowenvale	“Bowenvale Park to open”, The Press, 7 June 1985, p 5 [Bowenvale Park], The Press, 8 July 1985, p 9 Cashmere Spur and Bowenvale Valley Reserves : management plan Cashmere Spur And Bowenvale Valley Reserves Management Plan, July 1991

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bower Park			New Brighton Road	A nine-acre reserve. The area had been a council reserve for many years prior to 1963 but had become overgrown and neglected. A whippet racing club had used part of it for some years and horses were being slaughtered there for pets' meat until about 1960 when the council stopped it.	Bower Avenue	“Three city reserves to be developed”, The Press, 21 April 1960, p 15 “New park for city”, The Press, 23 March 1963, p 11

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bradford Park	Smart's Pond	Formerly Smart's Pond. Named after Samuel Smart (1822-1907). Re-named Bradford Park. Named after Bradford in England.	Strickland Street	The park was formerly a gravel pit known as Smart's Pond and was purchased by the city for a rubbish dump in 1923 for £800. In 1930 it was converted into a park and named Bradford Park. Named in memory of Frederick Riley Cooke (1867-1930) at the suggestion of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners. Cooke was a tailor, socialist and unionist and a Christchurch city councillor from 1920 until his death. He had lived for a time in Bradford, England before emigrating to Canterbury in 1900.	Ashgrove Reserve and Kyle Park. Also Smarts Road.	" Must breed rats ", The Press, 15 February 1922, p 11 " Memorial park ", The Press, 8 July 1930, p 13 Smart's Pond, later Bradford Park, Sydenham	View the biography of Frederick Riley Cooke in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography . " Obituary ", The Press, 27 June 1930, p 21 Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , p 6

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				Another name suggested was the Cooke Memorial Park.
Breeze Bay		Named after the steamer SS Breeze which was wrecked there in 1932.	Lyttelton Harbour	Parts of the wreck are still visible in the bay.		Sumner to Ferrymead: a Christchurch history , p 206	SS Breeze
Bridge Reserve			Bridge Street	Originally set aside as plantation reserve to shelter the settlement of South Brighton from southerly winds. Formed in 1941 on land given by Mr A. Still for "a nominal sum".		Abattoir, Reserves and Milk committee, No 4, pp 1486-1599, 22 January 1940-19 January 1942, C/97 held at Christchurch City Council archives.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Broad Oaks		Named after the protected oak trees at the top of the subdivision. More oaks have been planted at the entrance.	On the west side of Huntsbury Hill overlooking Bowenvale Valley.	In 1994, when the project was begun, the development was expected to take about 8 years with 240 sections being developed. The 35ha subdivision occupies the site of the former Cashmere Sanatorium (later Coronation Hospital). The aim was to carry the theme of the hospital right through the naming of the streets. This proved too difficult and many of the names have been taken from an English travel book eg. Kimbolton Lane, Trecastle Lane.	Caldwell Lane, Benjamin Lane, Enticott Place, Trumble Lane and Major Aitken Drive.	Information supplied by Fulton and Hogan in 2004 in an interview with Margaret Harper. “Broad Oaks”, The Press, 9 February 1994, p 43	Up the hill: Cashmere Sanatorium and Coronation Hospital, 1910 to 1991.

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Broad Park	Waimairi Beach Recreation or Picnic Reserve	Named after Preston Eddis Luce Broad (1877?-1951).	Corner Broadpark Street and Beach Road	The re-naming was suggested in 1938 when the honour was declined by Broad who said “I have no ambition for aggrandisement or personal notoriety”. Re-named at the 12 April 1945 meeting of the Waimairi County Council. Broad was a company director and chair of the Waimairi Beach Progress League. During the depression years he was the distributing officer of the mayor’s Coal and Blanket Fund. He was also clerical assistant to successive mayors of Christchurch. His obituary says he was an “untiring worker in district affairs”.	Broadpark Street	“Waimairi Beach”, The Press, 22 February 1938, p 15 Waimairi County Council minute book 1936-1946, held at Christchurch City Council archives. “Mr P. E. L. Broad”, The Press, 30 March 1951, p 8	Sydenham Borough Council minute book 1877-1878, held at Christchurch City Council archives.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Broken Run		Named because, before development, the land was a grazing farm with a natural valley and waterway splitting the farm into two halves, thus being a broken farm or run.	Wigram	The subdivision is located at the headwaters of the Heathcote River. Named by the developers, Brian Gillman Ltd. The streets in their development are all named after high country stations. Named in 2005.	Broken Run, Cromdale Place, Glen Arrife Place, Grassington Lane, Highpeak Place, Longspur Avenue and Ryton Way.	Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 12 July 2005
Bromley		Named after Bromley, a London borough.		The "side school and master's house at the Sandhills" became Bromley School which was opened on 16 February 1880. [A descendant of the Rev. Henry Bromley Cocks (1832-1894) says that Bromley was Cocks' mother's maiden name but the suburb was not named after him.]		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names , p 59 "School committee elections" , The Press, 31 January 1880, p 3 "Advertisements" , The Press, 12 February 1880, p 1 Information about the Rev. Henry Cocks supplied in 2004 by Richard Greenaway.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bromley Park			Buckleys Road	This park was originally divided into two areas by Council Road. The larger area was a slaughterhouse reserve and in 1931 was gazetted as a recreation reserve. The smaller area was once part of Linwood Cemetery. One of nine parks given their official names by the Christchurch City Council in 1948.	Bromley	“General news”, The Press, 14 July 1931, p 8 “Nine parks named, small reserves in Christchurch”, The Press, 14 September 1948, p 6	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 6

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Broomfield		Named after Broomfield, the 1150-acre estate bought in 1859 by the Rev. James Wilson (1813-1886), who later became Archdeacon Wilson. He was born in Scotland. He named his property after a country seat near Leith in Scotland.		Wilson farmed at Broomfield from 1863 until his death, having moved there from his estate in Waltham. The estate was first subdivided in 1908. The suburb was officially named by Albert Cyril Loach (1902-1987), the Historic Places trust field officer. Loach suggested the name to the Housing Corporation in the 1970s when it sold 50 sections on the corner of Buchanans Road and Carmens Road.		“Historic block”, The Press, 11 September 1975, p 3	“ Marriage ”, The Press, 15 June 1871, p 2 “ Obituary ”, Star, 19 January 1886, p 4

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Brownlee Reserve		Named after Dr. John Joseph Brownlee (1852?-1928) and his wife, Rebecca.	Panorama Road	Dr Brownlee, a medical practitioner, lived at 256 Cashel Street. Street directories of 1924 list him as having his summer residence on “Clifton East, facing Sumner”. A number of other people also had summer residences there. The reserve was officially gazetted in 1987.		Information supplied in 2007 by the Greenspace Unit, Christchurch City Council.	" Obituary ", The Press, 15 October 1928, p 4 By-ways of history & medicine: with special reference to Canterbury, New Zealand , pp 366-368

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Bryndwr		Named after a Welsh word meaning: on the brink (edge) of the water. There is a creek a good part of the way around the suburb.		Thomas Parr bought Rural Section 188, 100 acres “on the Avon”, and Rural Section 671, 24 acres “near Head of Wairarapa”. “T. Parr by Jeffreys” bought Rural Section 436, 20 acres, and Rural Section 546, also 20 acres, both “between Harewood Road and Wairarapa (Stream)”. Charles Alured Jeffreys (1821-1904) married Clara Ellen Parr. Parr gave his son-in-law the land as part of the marriage settlement.	Glandovey Road, Idris Road, Jeffreys Road, and other Welsh names in the Fendalton/Bryndwr area.	Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, pp 5, 11, 13, 15 “Birth notice”, The Lyttelton Times, 25 February 1854, p 5 “Advertisements”, The Press, 28 August 1880, p 4 “Road Boards”, Star, 11 May 1881, p 3 “European place names”, The Press, 5 January 1924, p 14 Fendall’s legacy: a history of Fendalton and north-west Christchurch, pp 74-76	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: J85 “Strawberry fields”, The Press, 21 November 2001, p 53

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The following birth notice appears in The Lyttelton Times of 25 February 1854, p 5: At Bryndwr Farm, near Christchurch, on the 18th instant, the wife of C. Jeffreys, Esq. of a daughter. The land was cut up into lots by Jeffreys, who made roads, giving most of them Welsh names. He left New Zealand in 1880 on inheriting Glandyfi Castle, in Wales. Bryndwr is first mentioned in The Press in 1880 when "the valuable suburb of Bryndwr", owned by Charles Jeffreys, is advertised for sale.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Burkes Bush		Named after Michael John Burke (1811-1869).	Halswell	Burke arrived on the Randolph in December 1850. He was a run holder, with William Guise Brittan senior, at Lansdowne. Burkes Pass is also named after him.		Information supplied by Richard Greenaway in 2011.	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : B981

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Burnside		A Scottish term meaning: at the side of a small burn or stream.		Named by William Boag (1828-1904) who emigrated from Perthshire, Scotland in 1851 and purchased Rural Section 476, 1 acre, 36 perches of land in "Fendall Town Road, Waimairi". His Burnside farm eventually covered some 690 hectares with subsequent purchases and leases around the Avon River headwaters. The estate of William Boag sold 5 acres, 1 rood of land in Burnside Road by auction in 1951. This was the "original homestead site with a holly hedge frontage of over 2 chains to Burnside Road".		Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, p 12 The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 67 "A history of the Burnside area", The Christchurch Mail, 11 May 1999, p 15 "Auctions", The Press, 17 December 1951, p 12 "Land sold for £700 an acre", The Press, 18 December 1951, p 6 "Burnside, Ilam, Avonhead", The Press, 19 May 1959, p 9	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: B538 "Deaths", Star, 29 August 1904, p 3 "The late Mr Boag", Star, 31 August 1904, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The suburb was officially named by the Waimairi County Council in 1959.
Burnside Park			Memorial Avenue	Negotiations for the purchase of 18 acres of land by the Waimairi County Council were completed in 1955. Burnside Park was also named that year.	Burnside	“Burnside Road Reserve”, Star-Sun, 21 October 1955, p 8 “Burnside Park”, The Press, 22 October 1955, p 4	Burnside Park : its history, people and sports

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Burwood	The Sandhills, Sandhills Run and Peter Kerr's Sandhills, also The Punt.	The part of Burwood which was near the Avon River was known as the Punt because people had to cross by punt, as there were no bridges in the area. The nearest bridge, at Stanmore Road, dates from the 1850s. Re-named Burwood. Named after Burwood Lodge.		Burwood Lodge was the large house in Bottle Lake Drive built in the 1880s by George Augustus King (1850-1922), an auctioneer. He was born at Richmond, near Burwood in New South Wales. "Burwood, Horse Shoe Lake" is first mentioned in the Star in 1884 in an advertisement.		" Advertisements ", Star, 2 February 1884, p 2 "Pilgrim days", Timaru Herald, 19 November 1910, p 2 "Early New Brighton", Star, 20 May 1922, p 6 "King Memorial Library, Burwood", The Press, 2 June 1925, p 10 History of the Avonside Parish District , p 90 Burwood All Saints' Church 1877-1977 , 71	"Growth of New Brighton from a sandy waste to a prosperous community", The Christchurch Star, 19 December 1958, p 2 "Burwood was early city settlement", Christchurch Star-Sun, 21 November 1949, p 2
Burwood Park	Marram Grass Reserve and Shirley Reserve. Buxton's Corner was on part of the land.	Buxton's Corner was named after John Buxton (1804?-1887) and his wife, Susannah.	New Brighton Road	Formerly a waste sandhill area and also the Marram Grass Reserve which is first mentioned in The Press in 1897. Part of it was used for many years as a city rubbish dump. Buxton, a saddler, settled to the west of the area and	Shirley, Burwood and Cresswell Avenue.	Early Dallington , p 8 & 9 Burwood All Saints' Church 1877-1977 , pp 81 & 90 "City Council", Star, 23 January 1894, p 1 "Advertisements", The	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: B1047 Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				the road on the west side of what became Burwood Park was called Buxton's Corner and also, from 1915, Cresswell Avenue. Buxton's Corner is first mentioned in the Star in 1894. In 1928 the Burwood Progressive Association asked for improvements and, during the depression years, relief workers converted the area into a park. The Burwood Progressive Association suggested the name in 1928 and Burwood Park was officially named by the Christchurch City Council in 1930.		Press, 4 November 1897, p 1 "Burwood works", The Press, 13 August 1928, p 9 "Burwood Park", The Press, 4 September 1928, p 5 "A place by any other name...", Pegasus Post, 20 September 1978, p 4	reserves, p 6

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Butts Valley	Lee's Valley and part of the Horotane Valley.	Named after George Leslie Lee (1814-1897). Re-named Butts Valley.		Lee owned two blocks of land in the Horotane Valley. Re-named Butts Valley by 1915.		The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 142 " A progressive county ", Sun, 16 April 1915, p 9	" Mr G. L. Lee ", The Press, 16 September 1897, p 6
Cambridge Green Reserve			Barbadoes Street and Salisbury Street intersection.	Named in 2000.		Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board agenda 21 November 2001

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cannon Hill	Cannon Estate	Named after the Cannon family.		The land had earlier been owned by Frederick William Sandford (1852-1941), son of early Heathcote settler, John Sandford (1828?-1904). The Cannon Hill estate was owned by 3 generations of the Cannon family. Philip Henry Cannon (1846?-1927) was a runholder of the Heathcote Valley in 1914. Cyrus Flood Cannon (1891-1976) attended Heathcote Valley School from 1901.		“New Cashmere subdivision”, The Press, 12 August 1959, p 22 “Cannon Estate thirty years in development”, The Press, 23 August 1989, p 49 [Some of the historic detail in this article is incorrect.] The Port Hills of Christchurch, pp 99-100 Sumner to Ferrymead: a Christchurch history, pp 117-118	Frederick William Sandford "Obituary", Star, 16 January 1904, p 5 "Deaths", The Press, 16 September 1927, p 1
				An area of about 111 acres was bought in 1956 by a syndicate which developed the land into residential sections.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Canterbury		Named after Canterbury, the English See.		The name was adopted at the first meeting of the Canterbury Association, in England, in 1848. Dr. John Bird Sumner (1780-1862), Archbishop of Canterbury, was present and elected president. The association thought it appropriate that a Church of England settlement be named after the premier see.		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 73 “Theory on city’s name ‘false’”, The Press, 7 March 1997, p 4 Additional information researched in 2010 by Richard Greenaway.	The Canterbury Association: a study of its members’ connections, p 92 “Choosing the site of Canterbury”, Star, 15 December 1900, p 7 "The Canterbury settlement", The Press, 16 December 1909, p 8

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The association sent out surveyors under Captain Joseph Thomas. They surveyed Central Christchurch, Sumner and Lyttelton and, more roughly, the hinterland 50-100 miles north and south of the city. From 1850-1853 land in this area, known as the Canterbury block, was sold at three pounds per acre. Originally it was hoped that land would be used for agricultural purposes but, very soon, sheep farmers took over.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The part of Canterbury which fell outside the Canterbury block was controlled by the Governor, Sir George Grey. He disposed of land at a much cheaper cost. This land was also used for sheep farming. In 1853, provincial governments were established throughout New Zealand, there being a central government in Auckland and, from 1865, in Wellington. The Canterbury province extended from the Hurunui River to the Waitaki River.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				Canterbury's original port was at Lyttelton, while Timaru was developed after 1859. Initially there were very few Europeans on the West Coast but, when the population boomed because of the discovery of gold, the Greymouth and Hokitika area came within Canterbury while the Buller region was part of Nelson. The provinces were abolished by central government in 1976.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Canterbury Foundation Ballpark	Cuthberts Green and Smokefree Ballpark.	Formerly Cuthberts Green. Named after Edwin Cuthbert (1845-1924). Re-named the Smokefree Ballpark. Later re-named the Canterbury Foundation Ballpark.	Pages Road	Cuthbert was an engineer with the Christchurch Drainage Board. Re-named the Smokefree Ballpark in 2000. Re-named the Canterbury Foundation Ballpark in 2005. It is Canterbury's softball headquarters.		Christchurch, swamp to city: a short history of the Christchurch Drainage Board 1875-1989 , p 28 "Name change for ballpark", The Press, 3 August 2000, p 16 "Name change", The Press, 4 October 2005, p D7	" Late Mr Edwin Cuthbert ", The Press, 14 November 1924, p 8
Cardigan Bay Reserve		Named after the racehorse Cardigan Bay (1956-1988). He was probably named after Cardigan Bay in Wales.	Corner of Wrights Road and Lincoln Road.	Cardigan Bay was New Zealand's most famous pacer and first in the world to earn a million dollars. Formed in 1994 on a subdivision of Addington raceway land and part of a broad plan for residential development in the area.		"Addington subdivision," The Press, 13 July 1994, p 47

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Casebrook		Casebrook Intermediate School was built in the late 1960s on land previously farmed by Walter Case (1881?-1961). This, coupled with the fact that there is a stream at the back of the school, gave rise to the name.		The shopping area took its name from the school. The orchard was bounded by Veitch Road, Cavendish Road and Northcote Road.		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 76 "Stream being landscaped", The Papanui Herald, 29 July 1975, p 1	"On the milk - for 96 years", The Papanui Herald , 13 September 1988, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cashmere	Cashmere Hills	Named after Cashmere, the home there of Sir John Cracroft-Wilson (1808-1881).		Cracroft-Wilson, an Anglo-Indian, fought in the Battle of Meeanee in 1843. He first came to Canterbury in 1854 with a retinue of Indian servants and purchased land at the foot of the Port Hills which he named after Cashmere, his favourite part of India. Cashmere was an alternative spelling of Kashmir in the nineteenth century. Soon after, he returned to India where he took part in the Indian Mutiny 1857-1858, after which he was knighted for distinguished service. He then returned to Canterbury and became a politician.	Hackthorne Road and Shalamar Drive. Also Cracroft.	The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 77 The evolution of a city, p 79 The Port Hills of Christchurch, pp 234-238 “Pilgrim days”, Timaru Herald, 16 September 1910, p 6	View the biography of John Cracroft Wilson in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cashmere children's playground			73 Cashmere Road	The Heathcote County Council approved the purchase of the H. A. Young estate in 1964 for use as a park and children's playground. Henry Aiken Young (1874?-1950) was for many years senior stipendiary magistrate of New Zealand.		"Proposed park", The Press, 22 October 1964, p 22	"Obituary", The Press, 4 December 1950, p 8 "Mr H. A. Young", The Press, 6 December 1950, p 8 "Reserve at Cashmere", The Press, 11 August 1965, p 9
Cashmere Hills Recreation Reserve			Reserve 161 on the Port Hills.	Named in 1883.		" Selwyn County Council ", Star, 28 November 1883, p 3 " Cashmere Hills Domain Board ", Star, 9 January 1884, p 3 " The new recreation reserve ", Star, 14 January 1884, p 4

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cass Bay		Named after Thomas Cass (1817-1895).		Cass was a surveyor. Cass's Bay is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1851.		"Resident Magistrate's Court", The Lyttelton Times, 25 October 1851, p 6	"Deaths", Star, 18 April 1895, p 2 "Mr Thomas Cass", The Press, 13 May 1895, p 2 "Thomas Cass : early Canterbury surveyor", The Press, 4 February 1999, p 16 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: C180

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cass Peak Scenic Reserve	Cass Peak Reserve	Named after Thomas Cass (1817-1895).	Port Hills	Cass was a surveyor. An area of 7 acres vested in Christchurch City Council in 1948.		"Summit Road Reserves", The Press, 6 August 1948, p 3	“Deaths”, Star, 18 April 1895, p 2 “Mr Thomas Cass”, The Press, 13 May 1895, p 2 “Thomas Cass : early Canterbury surveyor”, The Press, 4 February 1999, p 16 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: C180
Catons Bay		Named after John Henry Caton (d. 1870).	Lake Forsyth, Banks Peninsula	Caton was “well-known all over the Peninsula as a dealer in stock”. Named by 1870.	Caton Street	“Canterbury Circuit Court”, The Press, 11 June 1870, p 2 “Stories of the peninsula”, Akaroa Mail and Banks Peninsula Advertiser, 7 March 1882, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cave Rock	Cave Island or Cass Rock	Formerly Cass Rock. Named after Thomas Cass (1817-1895). Re-named Cave Rock. Named after the cave that goes right through it.		Cass was one of Captain Thomas' assistants in the survey of Canterbury prior to the arrival of the First Four Ships. For a time it was called Cave Island or Cass Rock. Public opinion turned against the name Cass Rock soon after Felix Wakefield cut up his Sumner land in 1864.	Wakefield Town	The early days of Canterbury: a miscellaneous collection of interesting facts dealing with the settlement's first thirty years of colonisation, 1850-1880 , p 64 Sumner to Ferrymead: a Christchurch history , p 207 The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 38	"Deaths", Star, 18 April 1895, p 2 "Mr Thomas Cass", The Press, 13 May 1895, p 2 "Thomas Cass : early Canterbury surveyor", The Press, 4 February 1999, p 16 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : C180
Centaurus Park	Huntsbury Domain	Named Centaurus Park because "other reserves in the same district vested in the Christchurch City and Suburban Domains Board are officially known as Huntsbury Domains".	Centaurus Road	Centaurus Road was named in 1938 to commemorate the first visit of the Imperial Airways flying-boat Centaurus to the South Island on 3 January 1938. One of nine parks given their official names by the City Council in 1948.	Centaurus Road	"Nine parks named, small reserves in Christchurch", The Press, 14 September 1948, p 6	"First visit of a flying-boat to the South Island : the Centaurus at Lyttelton", The Press, 4 January 1938, p 14

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Centennial Park		Named to mark the anniversary of Canterbury Province in 1950.	Lyttelton Street	In 1937, a former shingle pit on the site bounded by Lyttelton Street, Rose Street, Sparks Road and the Heathcote River was acquired by the Christchurch City Council for a landfill and refuse site. Planning for the development of a park was announced in 1950 and it was opened by the mayor, R. M. Macfarlane, on 10 September 1955.		Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 18 “New park at Spreydon”, The Press, 12 September 1955, p 8	“The road to Halswell”, The Press, 11 September 1976, p 15

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Chaney's Corner		Named after William George Chaney (1803-1883).		Chaney, a stonemason, arrived in Lyttelton on the Randolph. His son, Randolph, was born at sea during the voyage. The land was owned by the Chaney family until 1929. First mentioned in the Star in 1871.		“Local and General”, Star, 5 May 1871, p 2 “Old time memories”, The Press, 17 December 1909, p 7 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: C224j A short history of Belfast, 1949	“Death”, The Press, 12 March 1883, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Charleston		Named from the combination of names of Charles Street and Grafton Street, which intersect close to the centre of the neighbourhood.	The area bounded by Ferry Road, Ensors Road, the railway tracks and Wilsons Road.	A neighbourhood group was set up to fight industrial expansion in the area and Charleston became one of the city's first urban renewal areas, initiated through the government's Comprehensive Housing Improvement Programme (CHIP) in 1979. The scheme attempted to improve the quality of older residential areas close to city centres. Two areas in Christchurch - Avon Loop and Charleston - were approved before the CHIP scheme was abandoned in 1983.		Special Edition - Charleston Update

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Charlesworth Wetland Reserve		Named after Captain William Charlsworth (1814-1875).	Charlesworth Street	Charlsworth lived at Saxon Villa on Ferry Road until 1871. [Sometimes his surname is spelt with an "e".] In 1999, 5000 sq. m of ponds were built near the Estuary, forming the Charlesworth Wetland. It was developed by the Christchurch City Council, Environment Canterbury and the Avon-Heathcote Ihutai Trust and was officially opened on 10 December 2005.	Charlesworth Street		G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: C252 Captain William Charlsworth, 1814-1875: a chronicle of early New Zealand "Deaths", The Press, 23 February 1891, p 7 "Christchurch", Auckland Star, 14 June 1875, p 3 "Estuary wetland attracts wildlife", The Press, 6 March 1999, p 4 "New wetland one for the birds", The Press, 12 December 2005, p A6

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Charteris Bay		Named after Francis Richard Charteris, 10th Earl of Wemyss (1818-1914).	Banks Peninsula	Charteris was a British Whig politician and a member of the Canterbury Association from 27 March 1848. He belonged to the management committee. First mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1851.		" Rural Sections chosen ", Lyttelton Times, 26 April 1851, p 3	The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections , p 27
Chartwell Reserve		Named after Chartwell, for 42 years the country estate of Sir Winston Churchill (1874-1965).	Chartwell Street		Chartwell Street

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Childrens Bay		There are several possible reasons for the naming: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The stream flowing into it from the north-east was called Ruisseau des Enfants. 2. A brig, the Children, left Sydney on 11 March 1835 bringing stores to Otago, intending to call at another part of the country for a cargo of flax. 3. Local residents say it was so named because it was a favourite picnic resort for children. 	Northern part of French Bay, Banks Peninsula	First mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1861.		Place-names of Banks Peninsula, p 55 "Advertisements", Lyttelton Times, 25 December 1861, p 7

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Christchurch		Named after Christ Church, the college at Oxford University of John Robert Godley (1814-1861).		The name Christ Church was chosen on 27 March 1848 at the first meeting of the Canterbury Association. In a letter to his father some three years later Godley wrote: "I hope that my old College is grateful to me for naming the future capital after it". The Colonists' Council resolved to call the town Christchurch on 10 June 1851.		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 87 “Street names”, The Press, 2 September 1930, p 12	View the biography of John Robert Godley in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography. John Robert Godley of Canterbury

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Church Corner	Peerswick and Riccarton Village.	Formerly Peerswick. Named by Edward Jerningham Wakefield (1820-1879) after his racing stallion called The Peer. Re-named Riccarton Village and later Church Corner. Named after St Peter's Anglican Church.	Upper Riccarton	Peerswick farm is first mentioned in The Press in 1864. In the Star in 1878 Peerswick is described as being a "township known as Peerswick, comprising 100 acres, opposite the Riccarton Church and adjoining the Ilam Estate". When the land was auctioned that year Richard May Morten (1823-1909) was the seller. Once five residential streets of mainly workers' cottages.	Angela Street, Bowen Street, Church Street (later Brake Street), Harper Street (later Leslie Street) and Peer Street. Also Peerswick Mall.	" Electoral district of Avon ", The Press, 20 April 1864, p 6 " Local and General ", Star, 22 March 1878, p 2 Beyond the city: the land and its people, Riccarton, Waimairi, Paparua , p 119 " The Riccarton coach goes by ", The Press, 4 December 1937, p 21	View the biography of Edward Jerningham Wakefield in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Church Square	St Mary's Square	Formerly St Mary's Square. Named because it is the square around St. Mary's Anglican Church, Addington. Re-named Church Square.	Addington	The site of the land and vicarage was donated by Henry Sewell (1807-1879) in 1863 and the church was built in 1867. Church Square is first mentioned in The Press in 1879.		" Advertisements ", Star, 27 September 1879, p 2	View the biography of Henry Sewell in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography . The church of St. Mary the Virgin: Addington, 1867-1967
Churchill Park Community Garden		Named after the Most Rev. Churchill Julius (1847-1938).	Guild Street	Churchill Julius was the second Bishop of Christchurch 1890-1925 and Archbishop of New Zealand 1922-1925. Established on part of the site previously occupied by Churchill Courts. Site established by Richmond Community Action.		"Locals urged to become involved in blooming community garden", Christchurch Mail, 14 November 2013, p 26	View the biography of Churchill Julius in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .
Clare Park		Named after William Arthur "Bill" Clare (1932?-2007).	Burwood Road	Clare was Waimairi County Council's reserves superintendent.	Clarevale Street	"Problems over park name", The Papanui Herald , 23 March 1982, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Clearwater Resort				Work on the $80 million Clearwater golf resort and residential development began in January 1999. The Prime Minister, Helen Clarke, opened the resort in March 2002.		"Resort plan for Groynes", The Press, 1 December 1998, p 1 "Work starts on golf resort", Star, 20 January 1999, p A2 "Resort ready to officially open doors", Christchurch Star, 22 March 2002, p A2 "PM opens Clearwater", The Press, 25 March 2002, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Clifton Bay Reserve	Sumner Coronation Reserve	Formerly Sumner Coronation Reserve. Named to commemorate HM Queen Elizabeth's Coronation. Re-named Clifton Bay Reserve.	Sumner	Named Sumner Coronation Reserve by the mayor, Sir Robert Mafeking Macfarlane (1900-1981), in a ceremony in June 1953. The mayor planted a pohutukawa tree during the ceremony. On the plot already was a stone commemorating Sumner's 50th anniversary as a borough 1891-1941 and marking the site of a store of the Canterbury Association once there.		"Pohutukawa planted: new reserve named at Sumner", The Press, 2 June 1953, p 8 "Tree-planting at new garden reserve begins Sumner's celebrations", Christchurch Star-Sun, 2 June 1953, p 1

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cockayne Reserve	Awawai Reserve	Named after, and to honour, Leonard Cockayne (1855-1934).	On the north bank of the Avon between the Seaview Road and Bower bridges.	In 1951, the 8-acre site was a swamp densely covered with marsh-loving plants. It contained a fair representation of the flora that existed in such places before European settlement. It was planned to be a wild garden for native plants and also a bird sanctuary. The name change was suggested in 1977 by the New Brighton Horticultural Society. Cockayne's home was close by on the other side of the river where he grew a noted collection of native plants and trees.		"New reserve", The Press, 6 November 1951, p 6 "Reserve's name to change?", Pegasus Post, 27 July 1977, p 21	View the biography of Leonard Cockayne in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography Dr Cockayne and Harry Ell "Flaxbush country – the Cockayne Reserve", Pegasus Post, 7 October 1980, p 30 "Deteriorations in Cockayne Reserve", The Press, 17 August 1985, p 19
Connal Reserve		Named after Connal Street which, in turn, was named after Ebenezer Connal (d. 1881).	Between Connal Street and Barton Street.	Connal was a Methodist lay preacher. He drowned in the wreck of the SS Tararua off the Southland coast. The council bought bare	Connal Street	"New reserve plans", The Christchurch Mail, 6 April 1999, p 6 "Toxic land to get new life as park", The Press, 9 February 2005, p A6	The history of Methodism in New Zealand, p 413 G R Macdonald dictionary of

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				land for the reserve in 1996. Landscape architects Boffa Miskell prepared a design concept influenced by the Heathcote River and including native tree plantings, saw-toothed shaped planters to reflect the shape of Woolston industrial warehouse roofs, and arc-shaped gardens to echo the form of the balconies on the studio warehouses. The reserve is on a section in industrial Woolston previously occupied by toxic-waste disposal company B. J. Dakin. It was cleaned up by the council and made safe for use as a park in 2005.			Canterbury biographies: C509

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cooper's Knob Scenic Reserve	Cooper's Knob Reserve		Port Hills	An area of 39 acres vested in Christchurch City Council in 1948.			“Summit Road Reserves”, The Press, 6 August 1948, p 3 The Port Hills of Christchurch, p 287

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cornelius O'Connor Reserve	Harman Reserve	Formerly Harman Reserve. Named because of its location on Harman Street. Re-named Cornelius O'Connor Reserve. Named after Cornelius O'Connor (1826?-1916).	Harman Street	O'Connor, a labourer, bought the land where the reserve is situated in 1860. He was living at 80 Harman Street, Addington, at the time of his death. The land stayed in his family for almost 140 years and was sold to the council about 1988. A housing development was then built on part of the land and the balance kept for a park. O'Connor's grandson, Noel, felt it would be fitting to honour a working-class settler and his family.		Report of a meeting of the Spreydon/Heathcote Community Board 30 June 1998 "Reserve named after pioneer", The Press, 29 September 1998, p 6	"Advertisements", The Press, 20 June 1916, p 9
Coronation Reserve		Named because it is on the site originally occupied by the Coronation Hospital.	Huntsbury	In the Broad Oaks subdivision.		Up the hill: Cashmere Sanatorium and Coronation Hospital 1910 to 1991

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Corsair Bay		Named after the brigantine, Corsair.	Lyttelton	The ship was wrecked in Lyttelton harbour in 1861. Corsair's Bay is first mentioned in The Press in 1865.		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names , p 103 "Advertisements", The Press, 21 February 1865, p 4
Coutts Island	Coutts's Island	Named after Donald Coutts (1827-1899).		Coutts was a flourmiller of Kaiapoi Island. First mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1857.		A history of the Belfast Schools, 1859-1978 , p 101 Coutts's Island "Local intelligence", Lyttelton Times, 1 July 1857, p 5	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : C707 "Yesterday", Star, 6 March 1874, p 2 "Accidents and fatalities", Star, 21 October 1899, p 5

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cracroft		Named to recognise the work of Sir John Cracroft Wilson (1808-1881) in developing the land at the foot of the Port Hills. His mother's maiden name was Elizabeth Clementina Cracroft.		The neighbourhood of 280 households, from Cashmere Road between the old stone Cracroft House on Shalamar Drive, and Opihi Street, was admitted as an official suburb by the NZ Geographic Board in 1999. The split from adjoining suburbs Cashmere and Westmorland was initiated by the Cracroft Residents' Association in 1993. The last 30 sections of the Cracroft family estate at 60 Worsleys Road were auctioned on 8 December 2007.	Cashmere	"Cracroft latest suburb", The Christchurch Mail, 11 May 1999, p 6 "Cracroft sections sell fast", The Press, 12 December 2007, p C22	View the biography of John Cracroft Wilson in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography "Death", Star, 3 March 1881, p 2 The Port Hills of Christchurch, pp 234-238

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cracroft Reserve	Cracroft Hill Reserve	Named because it is in the suburb of Cracroft which, in turn, is named to recognise the work of Sir John Cracroft Wilson (1808-1881) in developing the land at the foot of the Port Hills. His mother's maiden name was Elizabeth Clementina Cracroft.	Dyers Pass Road and Hackthorne Road.	Dr Edward George Levinge (1852-1929), a medical practitioner of Cashmere, worked hard to secure the land as a reserve. Formed in 1922.	Cracroft	" New scenic reserve ", The Press, 21 April 1922, p 6 "Cracroft Hill", The Press, 17 June 1926, p 2	" Obituary ", The Press, 23 November 1929, p 16 An Index of Obituaries in the New Zealand Medical Journal, 1887-2008
Craighead Reserve		Named after the Craighead family.	Northcote Road	Samuel Craighead (1881?-1964), a shepherd, and his wife, Fanny (1884-1976), lived at 87 Northcote Road. The reserve was developed after Fanny's death.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Creedon Reserve		Named after the Creedon family.	Creedon Glen	Arthur Julius Creedon (1898-1960), a market gardener, and his family settled in Highsted Road about 1940 when it was a shingle track. Named in 1999.	Creedon Glen	“Down our street”, The Press, 28 October 1999, p 1 Shirley/Papanui Community Board agenda 5 May 1999

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Crosbie Park		Named after Agnes Wotherspoon Francis, neé Crosbie, (1851-1933) and her sister, Jane Blackwood Crosbie (1854?-1936).	Apsley Drive	The Crosbie sisters, both dressmakers, bought 30 acres in 1894 on the western side of Burnside Road as a small farm in the country. They planted 200 trees and shrubs on the land fronting onto the road. Both women are listed in street directories of 1924 living on Hawthornden Road. Much of the land was sold on Agnes' death, including the area now known as Crosbie Park. A beneficiary of her will was her niece, Avice Hill (1906-2001), whom she and her sister had raised.	Avice Hill Reserve	Fendall's legacy: a history of Fendalton and north-west Christchurch, p 184	"Deaths", The Press, 1 May 1933, p 1 "'Queen of Herbs' followed own path", The Press, 11 January 2001, p 5
				Avice Hill later gifted her property to the Waimairi Council as a herb garden and art and craft centre for the community.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Cutler Park		Named after Ronald Ewart Cutler (1912-2008).	Clydesdale Street	Ron Cutler Park was the first name proposed. Named in tribute to Cutler who retired in 1976 having served as senior clerk in the Parks and Recreation Department for 44 years. He had wide experience in horticultural work for the Christchurch City Council. Named in 1976.		"Council should not lease park", The Press, 9 June 1976, p 6
Cypress Garden Reserve		Named because of the cypress trees at nearby Ruru Lawn Cemetery.	Bromley Road
Dakota Park		Named after the Douglas DC-3 "Dakota" aeroplane.	Christchurch Airport	Land for an industrial park was set aside in 2010 by Christchurch airport for "warehousing and logistics companies with links to the airport and airlines".		"Park plan about to take off", The Press, 13 January 2010, p C8 "Major road development at airport", Nor-West News , 9 June 2010, p 3

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Dallington	Dudley's Creek and Broome or Broom Farm.	Formerly Dudley's Creek and Broom Farm. Named after John Dudley (1808-1861) and his farm. He was a son of the Rev. Edward Dudley, Rector of Broom, Staffordshire. Re-named Dallington. Named by Henry Joseph Campbell Jekyll (1844-1913).		John Dudley bought Rural Section 183, 100 acres on the "Avon, North Bank" from the Canterbury Association in 1851, calling it Broom Farm. A daughter was born there to him and his wife in 1853. His estate auctioned the property in 1879, advertising it as a "valuable estate situated close to Christchurch, beautifully situated and in every way fitted up for the occupation of a family". Henry Jekyll bought the property and changed its name to Dallington, naming it after a family estate in Northamptonshire. First mentioned in The Press in 1883 when "beautiful suburban villa	Dudley Creek	"Births", The Lyttelton Times, 15 October 1853, p 6 Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863 , p 5 "Deaths", The Lyttelton Times, 6 July 1861, p 9 "Advertisements", The Press, 6 October 1879, p 4 "Local and General", Star, 28 November 1879, p 2 "Advertisements", The Press, 3 October 1883, p 4 Early Dallington p. 2 Avonside parish leaflet, May 1930, pp 3-4, held at Anglican Archives	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : D472 "Dallington", The Press, 4 January 1913, p 5

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				sites on the banks of the Avon in the suburb of Dallington, lately known as Broom Farm” are advertised for sale by Henry Jekyll.
Dampiers Bay	Dampier’s Bay	Named after Christopher Edward Dampier (1801-1871).		Dampier arrived in Wellington in December 1850 on the Phoebe Dunbar. He became the Canterbury Association’s first solicitor in Canterbury. He lived in West Lyttelton – an area which became known as Dampier’s Bay. It later became the site of the Lyttelton dry dock. Dampier returned to England, dying in Hampshire. Dampier's Bay is first mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1852.		The summer ships, pp 148 & 153 "Advertisements", Lyttelton Times, 7 February 1852, p 8 "European place names", The Press, 19 February 1924, p 14	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: D39

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Decanter Bay		Named because the bay is supposedly in the shape of a decanter.	Near Little Akaloa, Banks Peninsula	Named as early as 1851. Thomas Smith Duncan (1821-1884) bought Rural Section 92, 50 acres in Decanter Bay.		Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863 , p 3 " Rural Sections chosen ", The Lyttelton Times, 29 March 1851, p 6	" Obituary ", Star, 23 December 1884, p 4
Delamain		Named after Frederick William Delamain (1835-1910).	Yaldhurst.	Delamain was a descendant of one of France's great cognac-making families. A residential subdivision off Buchanans Road developed from 2007.	Yaldhurst	Delamain "Delamain Residential Subdivision", The Press, 24 May 2007, p B4	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : D193 " Obituary ", Grey River Argus, 25 May 1910, p 1 " Mr F. W. Delamain ", The Press, 18 May 1910, p 8

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Delamare Park		Named after Ronald Cyril de la Mare (1925-1975).	85 St Heliers Crescent	De la Mare was the managing director of the Bower Egg Farm Ltd, 467 Bower Avenue. He developed a subdivision off Rowses Road and Breezes Road and also named the streets.		Information supplied in 2007 by Tim Baker in an interview with Margaret Harper.	“New Aranui subdivision”, The Press, 11 July 1972, p 14
Denton Park		Named after Stanley David Denton (1892-1972).	Main South Road	Denton donated the land to Hornby for the park in 1952 when he subdivided land between the Main South Road and the railway line close to the Hornby shopping centre. About 3000 poplar cuttings were planted around the boundary.		“Recreation area at Hornby”, The Press, 17 December 1952, p 8 “New park at Hornby”, The Press, 15 July 1953, p 10

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Devonvale Estates		Named after the Devonvale Dairy Farm, the farm there owned by James Johns (1836-1903) and his brother, Frederick. They were born in Devon, England. Their family had farmed in Devonshire, England for many generations.	On the corner of Johns Road and the Main North Road.	An apple orchard development based on a cluster farming concept and developed by Latimer Holdings Ltd. in 1987. A 67 hectare site was divided into twelve 4.4 hectare orchards and twelve 0.4 hectare residential sites. It was designed to fill a demand from people who want the benefits of a country lifestyle combined with the benefits of urban living.	Johns Road	A short history of Belfast, 1949 "Land reclaimed at Belfast", The Press, 18 April 1934, p 20 "100-year link with Belfast broken", Christchurch Star, 28 July 1977, p 30	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: J117 "End of the old dairy", The Papanui Herald , 4 November 1986, p 1 "Rural living close to the city", The Press, 26 August 1987, p 17

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Diamond Harbour		Named because of the “glitter of the sun-track on the water”.		Named, according to his obituary, by Mark Pringle Stoddard (1819-1885) who named his estate, Diamond Harbour. Stoddart is listed as “a settler of Diamond Harbour” on the electoral roll for the district of Christchurch in 1853.		"Electoral roll for the district of Christchurch, July 5th 1853", Lyttelton Times, 16 July 1853, p 8 "Local & General", Star, 1 September 1885, p 3 The story of Lyttelton, 1849-1949, p 148 Place-names of Banks Peninsula: a topographical history, p 61

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Dixon Reserve	Amelia Rogers Reserve Extension	Named after Norma Civilis Dixon, née Donnell.	Longview Estate	Norma Dixon is the daughter of Edith Amelia Donnell (1904-1982) who, in 1945, purchased the land where the reserve was developed. The land for this reserve, and for Anzac Reserve, was given to the council by Norma Dixon and her husband as part of the reserve contribution when the Longview Estate subdivision was developed. Named in 2007.	Amelia Rogers Reserve, Donnell Sports Park, Norcorss Street and Schumacher Place.	Burwood/Pegasus Community Board agenda 21 March 2007
Donnell Sports Park		Named after William John Donnell (1873?-1944).	Brooker Avenue and Rebecca Avenue through to Travis Road.	The Donnell family had a dairy farm from 1900 where this park was later developed. Horace Alexander Donnell (1903?-1965) extended the farm by buying land from the neighbouring Corser family in the mid-1940s.	Amelia Rogers Reserve, Dixon Reserve, Donnell Sports Park, Norcorss Street and Schumacher Place.	Information supplied in 2007 by Ian and Norma Dixon in an interview with Margaret Harper. Mrs Dixon was formerly Norma Donnell.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Doris Lusk Corner		Named after Doris More Lusk (1916-1990).	Stanmore Road	Lusk was an artist and art teacher, potter and university lecturer.			View the biography of Doris More Lusk in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .
Douglas Scenic Reserve			481 Dyers Pass Road	The reserve was purchased by the Summit Road Society and transferred to the Crown in 1982. It was vested in the Christchurch City Council in 1984.		Cashmere Spur and Bowenvale Valley Reserves : management plan Cashmere Spur And Bowenvale Valley Reserves Management Plan, July 1991
The Dry Bush		Named by the early colonists because of the many dead trees in the bush.	In a gully between Bowen's Valley and Rapaki Road.	Two brothers named Brittan lived there in the early 1850s and the walls of their old home were still there in 1920.		"Place names on Port Hills-Akaroa Summit Road" , The Star, 20 November 1920, p 10

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Dudley Creek		Named after Dr Charles Dudley (1810-1881).	The narrow waterway alongside Banks Avenue at the point where River Road reaches a bridge and goes on to McBratneys Road with Banks Avenue to the north.	First mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1858 when tenders were called for building a bridge over Dudley's Creek on the Christchurch East Road.	Banks Avenue and Dallington.	" Advertisements ", Lyttelton Times, 31 December 1858, p 5	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : D467 & D472 " Star ", The Press, 19 September 1881, p 3
Dunair Estates		Named after Judy Blair, née Dunlop.	Burwood	Dunair is a combination of Judy Blair's maiden and married names, Dunlop and Blair. Blair, a well-known netball coach in the late 1960s, and her husband, Kevin, bought a horse paddock off New Brighton Road for their daughter's horse in the early 1980s and later subdivided the land.	Belair Close and Dunair Drive.	"Dunair Estates", The Press, 16 April 1997, p 19

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Edgar Macintosh Park	Jennifer Street Reserve	Named after Edgar Hika Macintosh (1904?-1958).	Off Condell Avenue and Jennifer Street.	Macintosh was city surveyor from 1942. Named after him because of his work in negotiating recreational reserve contributions from the large subdivisions done during his time as city surveyor. He was associated with the purchase of land for the Bickerton Street and Spreydon subdivisions and Christchurch International Airport. Developed in the early 1960s.		"Playground amenities at McIntosh (sic) Park", The Papanui Herald , 2 June 1961, p 3	New Zealand Surveyor Vol 22, 1957-1959, p 283 “Three city reserves to be developed”, The Press, 21 April 1960, p 15

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Edmonds Park		Named after Thomas John Edmonds (1858-1932).	Ferry Road and Aldwins Road.	Edmonds was the manufacturer of the well-known brand of baking powder. He donated an area of 4 ¼ acres in Ferry Road, next to the Edmonds factory, for the reserve. One of nine parks given their official names by the Christchurch City Council in 1948.		“Nine parks named, small reserves in Christchurch”, The Press, 14 September 1948, p 6 The legacy of Thomas Edmonds	"Obituary" , The Press, 3 June 1932, p 16 "Last tribute" , The Press, 6 June 1932, p 3
Egnot Heights		Named after Leslie Jean Egnot (1963-).		Egnot was the first woman to helm an America’s Cup yacht. The second stage of the development has two smaller roads: Defender Lane and Challenger Lane. These names were chosen by Leslie Egnot to create an America’s Cup theme.		“Egnot opens subdivision”, The Press, 2 October 1995, p 5

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Elizabeth Park		Named after HM Queen Elizabeth II (1926-).	Dyers Pass Road	Gazetted as a recreation reserve in 1951. Named in honour of the accession to the throne of Queen Elizabeth in 1952.	Victoria Park	The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 211 “Development of parks”, The Press, 9 December 1953, p 7 Cashmere Spur and Bowenvale Valley Reserves : management plan Cashmere Spur And Bowenvale Valley Reserves Management Plan, July 1991

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Elmwood		Named after Elmwood, the home built there in 1866 by Robert Heaton Rhodes (1815-1884).	Heaton Street	The property was later developed further by Rhodes' son, Sir (Robert) Heaton Rhodes (1861-1956). The suburb was named in 1907. Elmwood was purchased by the Canterbury Education Board on 23 August 1945 and later became the site for Heaton Intermediate School, the third intermediate school in Christchurch.	Circuit Street and Heaton Street. Also Elmwood.	The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 134 “Education Boards”, Star, 11 December 1907, p 2	“Deaths”, Star, 2 June 1884, p 2 “Makers of Canterbury”, The Press, 16 August 1930, p 15 Heaton Rhodes of Otahuna: the illustrated biography

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Elmwood Park		Named because it was part of the Elmwood Estate.	Heaton Street	The land for the park was purchased in 1913. The government gave a subsidy towards the purchase. It was used for the first time as a senior cricket ground in 1926.	Elmwood	"Proposed park at St Albans", The Press, 20 May 1911, p 11 "Christchurch day by day", Ashburton Guardian, 20 June 1913, p 2 "The City", Ashburton Guardian, 27 June 1913, p 2 "The City", Ashburton Guardian, 5 July 1913, p 2 "Elmwood Park", The Press, 15 April 1919, p 7 "The game of Christchurch", NZ Truth, 21 October 1926, p 14	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , p 7

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Elsie Locke Park		Named after Elsie Locke (1912-2001).	Armagh Street	Elsie Locke, a feminist and socialist, also campaigned against nuclear weapons. She was a regular swimmer at the Centennial Pool. When the pool was upgraded in 1997, the adjoining park was named after her to recognise her services to Christchurch, in particular the inner city. Incorporated into Margaret Mahy Park.		Elsie Locke Council proceedings, 26 March 1997	“‘National treasure’ Elsie Locke inspired her community”, The Press, 9 April 2001, p 1
Ernle Clark Reserve	Ernlea Reserve	Named after Leonard Ernle Clark (1906-1964).	16 Thorrrington Road	In 1936, Clark was the second aviator to fly solo from England to New Zealand. Re-named in 2000 at the suggestion of Clark’s son.	Thorrrington	Forgotten flyer gets reserve name “Aviator honoured”, Christchurch star, 19 May 2000, p B13 Our Environment Issue 27 Winter 2001	"Death of Mr L. E. Clark, pioneer airman", The Press, 28 December 1964, p 12

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Evans Pass		Named after F. J. Evans, first lieutenant and officer of HMS Acheron. OR Named after Evans, a man on the staff of Captain Joseph Thomas (b. 1803?) who was employed by the Canterbury Land Association and in 1849 surveyed the first Lyttelton-Sumner Road (H. G. Ell).		First mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1852.		"Mr Roy's official report on the Sumner Road", Lyttelton Times, 28 August 1852, p 10 "Place names", The Star, 4 December 1920, p 9 (written by H. G. Ell). The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 138	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: E142 & T42

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
F W Delamain Park		Named after Frederick William Delamain (1835-1910).	1 F W Delamain Drive, Yaldhurst	Delamain owned Yaldhurst, a racing stables and stud on the West Coast Road.	Delamain	“Delamain Residential Subdivision”, The Press, 24 May 2007, p B4	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : D193 "Obituary", Grey River Argus, 25 May 1910, p 1 “ Mr F. W. Delamain ”, The Press, 18 May 1910, p 8
Fanshaw Reserve		Named after the RNZAF bear mascot held at the Air Force Museum at Wigram.	79R Corsair Drive	Continues the aviation theme of street and place names used in the Wigram Skies subdivision. Named in 2013.	Wigram Skies	Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 17 September 2013 Riccarton/Wigram Community Board minutes 17 September 2013	Wigram Skies

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Farnley Reserve		Named after the Farnley Brick and Tile Works formerly on this site.	Adjacent to the Heathcote River behind the Centaurus Road shops.	This riverside area was a formerly a wasteland with litter, hard soil, and discarded rubbish. The reserve was created in 1998 by several community groups, especially the Soroptimist International (organisation of professional and business women) in partnership with the Waterways and Wetlands team of the Christchurch City Council.		“Soroptimists, take a bow”, The Christchurch Star, 24 September 1999, p C4 Farnley Reserve	“Local industry”, Star, 7 October 1890, p 4

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Fendalton	Fendall town and Fendalltown.	Named after Walpole Cheshire Fendall (1830-1913).		Fendall emigrated from Crambe, Yorkshire to Canterbury in 1850. He took up Rural Section 18, a 50-acre block of land across the Waimairi Stream from the Deans brothers' Riccarton farm. Fendall town is first mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1853. Samuel Cox, a labourer, is listed on the Jury List as a resident of Fendall town.		Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, p 1 "Rural Sections chosen", The Lyttelton Times, 1 March 1851, p 6 "Jury List", The Lyttelton Times, 22 October 1853, p 4 "Local and General", Star, 9 August 1870, p 2	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: F67 "Obituary", The Press, 7 April 1913, p 9

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Ferrier Park		Named after Claude Jack Ferrier (1897-1986).	Nortons Road	Ferrier, a businessman, and two partners founded the firm of Francis Woolley Ltd which became one of the biggest wool-buying companies in New Zealand. He and his wife, Marjorie, gave the Ferrier Fountain to the Christchurch Town Hall. He also helped organise the purchase of Mona Vale for the people of Christchurch. He donated almost 71/2 acres of land in Nortons Road for the park in 1965, saying he got his idea from Mr Jellie.	Jellie Park	“Gift of land for park”, The Press, 19 February 1965, p 14	“Obituary”, The Press, 15 July 1986, p 3

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Ferrymead		Named after Ferry Mead, the home there of James Townsend (1788-1866). The name means: the meadow of the ferry.		Ferry Mead was near the ferry which ran across the mouth of the Heathcote River. Ferrymead is first mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1856. It was then the residence of William C. Lawrence, a gentleman.		" Electoral roll ", Lyttelton Times, 20 February 1856, p 2 Ferrymead Reserve & Ferrymead Esplanade Reserve Management Plan The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 75
Firefighters Reserve		Dedicated to world firefighters.	Corner of Kilmore Street, Madras Street and Oxford Terrace beside the River Avon.	The sculpture on the reserve was created by Graham Bennett in honour of the firefighters who died when terrorists crashed two planes into the World Trade Centre in New York on 11 September 2001. It was constructed from beams extracted from the remains of the ravaged buildings and given to Christchurch by the City of New York.		"Firefighters' tribute", The Press, 15 March 2002, p 4 "Putting it right", The Press, 21 November 2007, p A10 Journey : the story of the steel	"The best sweat it out", The Press, 28 October 2002, p A2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				It was unveiled at the start of the World Firefighters' Games, when the Firefighters' Reserve was opened. The games were officially known as the Memorial Games and held in honour of all firefighters who have lost their lives in the line of duty.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Flay Park		Named after Professor Albert Hugh Flay (1905-1973).	Grahams Road	Flay was a former head of farm management at Lincoln College. He owned 50 acres of land on the eastern side of Grahams Road opposite the Waimairi Cemetery, the location of the present Flay Crescent. He was responsible for the protection of magnificent old oak trees in Grahams Road. Flay Park is on the site of Douglas Graham's homestead, Springbank and was developed after 1978.	Grahams Road and Flay Crescent. Also Witbrock Crescent.	Fendall's legacy: a history of Fendalton and north-west Christchurch, p 175 "Work on proposed park", The Papanui Herald, 27 June 1978, p 5 "Making space", The Press, 24 February 1992, p 9	"Long association with Lincoln College", The Press, 27 March 1973, p 4

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Flockton Basin		Named because it is in the vicinity of Flockton Street.	A low-lying plain straddling St Albans and Mairehau, west of Dudley Creek.	A term coined after the floods of 5 & 6 March 2014. Garry Moore, a previous mayor of Christchurch, said on National radio that week that he had never heard of the term Flockton Basin until that week.	Flockton Street
Forest Park Estate		Named after the pine forest fringing the area.	Parklands	Developed in 1991 by Smith Developments Ltd.		"Forest Park Estate, Queenspark", The Press, 16 October 1991, p 33

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Fort Jervois	Fort Ripa	Named after Sir William Francis Drummond Jervois (1821-1897).	Ripapa Island	Re-named Fort Jervois in 1888. Drummond was a military engineer and colonial governor. The fort was built by prison labour and was “one of the strongest harbour forts in the British Empire”.		“Local & General”, Star, 12 September 1888, p 3 “Ripa Island”, The Press, 2 May 1946, p 3	“The defence of Lyttelton”, Star, 13 September 1888, p 4 View the biography of William Francis Drummond Jervois in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography.

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Frees Creek		Named after Thomas Free (1817?-1894).		Free was a licensee of the Bower Hotel. Frees Creek is first mentioned in the Star in 1877. It was a water collection area for the Māori in pre-European times. There were large springs close to where Rehua Marae is now situated in Springfield Road. Drainage threatened the creek. In 1996, the city council and the marae realigned and naturalised it through the marae grounds. Frees Creek was a natural outlet for water flowing from numerous springs upon and adjacent to Bealey Avenue.	Lower Frees Creek. Also Bower Avenue.	Lore and history of the South Island Māori “Drainage Board”, Star, 8 January 1877, p 2	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: F353 “Deaths”, The Press, 1 December 1894, p 1

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Freeville		Named after George Free (1868-1959), son of Thomas. The name of the Freeville School became that of the surrounding district.			Frees Road	Information supplied in 2004 by Richard Greenaway.
Garrick Memorial Park		May have been named after George Francis "Frank" Garrick (1911?-1962).	Hargood Street	Garrick, a rubberworker, lived at 669 Ferry Road near where the park was developed. First appears in street directories in 1972.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
George West Reserve		Named after George Henry West (1914-1939).	40R Bennington Way	Leading Aircraftsman West was the first Māori pilot to enter the RNZAF. He died in an aircraft accident at Wigram in 1939. Continues the aviation theme of street and place names used in the Wigram Skies subdivision. Named in 2013.	Wigram Skies	Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 17 September 2013 Riccarton/Wigram Community Board minutes 17 September 2013	"Wigram tragedy" , Evening Post, 27 May 1939, p 15 Wigram Skies
Giant Tor		Named after "the tor-shaped outcrops on the reserve".	The "great rock on the saddle of the hills above Lyttelton abbatoirs".	Named by Blanche Edith Baughan (1869?-1958). The land for the reserve was given by brothers, Richard May Downes Morten (1877-1950) and Arthur Roscoe Vernon Morten (1878-1931), and is about 13 acres.	Starwood Lane	"Place names" , The Star, 27 November 1920, p 9 (written by H. G. Ell)	"Death of Mr A. V. R. Morten" , The Press, 13 April 1931, p 14

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Gilby area	Avonville and part of the borough of Linwood.	May have been named after Charles Horace Gilby (1856-1946).	Bounded by Linwood Avenue, Armagh Street, Fitzgerald Avenue and Avonside Drive.	Gilby was a schoolmaster, and also on the staff of the The Lyttelton Times. He founded Gilby's Commercial College which survived until 1970.	Gilby Street	Along the hills: a history of the Heathcote Road Board and the Heathcote County Council 1864-1989 , p 29 Gilby neighbourhood improvement plan , pp 7-8	Our Environment Issue 39 Spring 2004
Glasnevin		Named after Glasnevin in Ireland.	Casebrook	Developed in 1998 by Danne Mora Holdings, the company of Wayne Francis (1943-1999) and Fulton Hogan.		"Harness racing identity gave much to sport", The Press, 1 July 1999, p 5	"Glasnevin", The Press, 17 June 1998, p 34 "Harness racing identity gave much to sports", The Press, 1 July 1999, p 5
Glebe Reserve		A reserve contribution to accompany the subdivision of most of the glebe land attached to St Peter's Upper Riccarton Anglican Church	Main South Road	Archdeacon Octavius Mathias (1805-1864) bought Rural Section 160, 200 acres in Riccarton. "The site of the church (St Peter's) and of a school-house to be built in connection with it, the	Curletts Road	Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863 , p 4 "Old trees may go", The Press, 17 January 1978, p 6	The Blain Biographical Directory of Anglican Clergy in the Pacific G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
		into 16 housing sections in 1985.		burial ground surrounding the church, the site of the parsonage-house and the glebe, 20 acres in all, were the gift of Mathias in 1858". "Consecration of St. Peter's Church", The Lyttelton Times, 10 April 1858, p 4 The land was farmed until the death of the Rev. Herbert Thomas York (1864?-1939). An Act of Parliament in 1981 allowed the Anglican church the right to decide on a change of land use. A walking route through the reserve was completed in 1996.		"Backs to the wall; we're fighting", The Press, 18 January 1978, p 4 "Project an error in map reading?", The Press, 19 January 1978, p 4 "Land to be sold", The Press, 15 April 1983, p 19 "Turning the historic Glebe into walkways and housing", The Press, 29 April 1983, p 13 "Glebe lots for auction", The Press, 26 April 1985, p 4 "Sections in Glebe mostly sold", The Press, 29 April 1985, p 1 "Glebe open to walkers", The Press, 22 October 1986, p 21	biographies: M240 "Obituary", The Press, 20 May 1939, p 16

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
						The Glebe Reserve pathway proposal: Parks Unit, Christchurch City Council, February 1996
Glenmore Estate		Named because it was developed on land once occupied by the Glenmore Brickworks and Quarry. The original house, Glenmore, was named by Major Henry Arthur Scott (1815?-1908).		Scott bought Rural Section 2600, 20 acres in “Christchurch District, Hills Road” (later Port Hills Road). He was the first officer commanding the volunteers in Canterbury. He appears in The Lyttelton Times in 1858, described as a gentleman of Glenmore. The brickworks began operation in 1901 and closed in the 1960s despite an annual output of 5 million bricks. Developer Bill Horncastle bought the property in 1996 from David Sturrock and the original house, built in 1851 and the oldest remaining private	Alderson Avenue, Peartree Lane and The Kilns.	Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, p 56 "Advertisements", The Lyttelton Times, 10 February 1858, p 10 “Developer hopes to save historic Port Hills house”, The Press, 6 March 1996, p 5 “Buyer sought to save early homestead”, The Press, 13 March 1996, p 49 “Homestead adds slice of history to subdivision”, The Press, 27 February 1997, p 32	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: S119 “Major H. A. Scott”, The Press, 2 October 1908, p 7 Homes of the pioneers : pen & wash drawings “Story of Glenmore began in 1851”, The Press, 12 September 1970, p 5 The Port Hills of Christchurch, pp 162-165

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				residence in south-east Christchurch, was able to be saved from demolition. The surrounding land was subdivided into 17 sections.		"Historic house on market", The Press, 21 January 1998, p 45
Godley Head	Cachalot Head	Formerly Cachalot Head. Named after the sperm whale (Physeter macrocephalus), or cachalot. Re-named Godley Head. Named after John Robert Godley (1814-1861).		Godley was a lawyer, writer, administrator, coloniser, public servant Godley Head is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1851. It is referred to as Cachalot Head and Godley Head in the Lyttelton Times 1859-1866 so both names must have been used concurrently. Cachalot Head is not used post-1866.		" Correspondence ", Lyttelton Times, 28 June 1851, p 6 " Pilotage of the harbour ", Lyttelton Times, 17 August 1859, p 4 " Notice to Mariners ", New Zealand Herald, 9 December 1864, p 4 " Maori names ", Star, 30 December 1901, p 1 " Maori nomenclature ", Otago Daily Times, 30 March 1912, p 4	View the biography of John Robert Godley in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography . G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : G231

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Gollans Bay	Gollan's Bay	Named after Donald Gollan (1811-1887).		Gollan emigrated to Canterbury in 1841 as a surveyor for the NZ Company. He worked at Port Cooper (Lyttelton) under Captain Joseph Thomas (b. 1803?). Gollan's Bay is first mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1851.		Sumner to Ferrymead: a Christchurch history , p 207 " Advertisements ", Lyttelton Times, 18 January 1851, p 1	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : G243 " Life and work of a pioneer ", Star, 15 October 1887, p 3 " The late Mr. D. Gollan ", Poverty Bay Herald, 15 October 1887, p 2
Gollans Point		Named after Donald Gollan (1811-1887).		Gollan emigrated to Canterbury in 1841 as a surveyor for the NZ Company. He worked at Port Cooper (Lyttelton) under Captain Joseph Thomas (b. 1803?). A sign was erected in 2004 to identify this point.		Sumner-Redcliffs Historical Society	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : G243 " Life and work of a pioneer ", Star, 15 October 1887, p 3 " The late Mr. D. Gollan ", Poverty Bay Herald, 15 October 1887, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Governors Bay		Named after Sir George Grey (1812-1898).		Grey was a soldier, explorer, Governor of South Australia, twice Governor of New Zealand, Governor of Cape Colony, the 11th Premier of New Zealand and a writer. He was at Lyttelton to welcome the first four ships in December 1850 while his vessel lay at anchor near Governors Bay. Governor's Bay is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1852.		" Advertisements ". Lyttelton Times, 14 August 1852, p 10	View the biography of George Grey in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Grant Armstrong Park		Named after Robert Grant Armstrong (1935-).	Isleworth Street	Armstrong was involved in horse racing and community affairs in the Bishopdale area. The park was developed in 1982 after he organised community support to obtain the land next to Isleworth School for a park. It had earlier been proposed to build an intermediate school there. It remained un-named for a time as Waimairi County councillors could not decide on a name. Suggestions included Isleworth Park and Bert Walker Park after a former National member of parliament for Papanui.		“Park remains un-named,” The Press, 3 March 1982, p 6 “Problems over park name”, The Papanui Herald, 23 March 1982, p 3 Information supplied in 2006 by Ian Barclay White, a former Waimairi County surveyor, in an interview with Margaret Harper. He was among those involved with the naming of the park.	“Good response to plea for help”, The Papanui Herald, 22 November 1977, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The Waimairi County Council decided to recognise Armstrong's community work by naming the park after him.
Greenwood Farm		Named after the Greenwood family.	Richmond Hill	A subdivision developed by Greenwood Estates on the site of the Richmond Hill Golf Club which was closed in 1997. Named in 2006.	Teviotdale Way	Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board agenda 27 September 2006	Gloaming, the wonder horse , pp 87-98 "Obituary", The Press, 29 August 1932, p 13 "Richmond Golf Club to close next month", The Press, 5 November 1997, p 4 "Deserted course irks golfer", The Press, 4 July 2000, p 9 "Hillside haven", The Press, 28 October 2006, p H3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Groynes Park			On the corner of Johns Road and Groynes Drive.	Developed on land, formerly used for orcharding, by Eminence Investments Ltd, which has Malaysian, Christchurch and Auckland owners, in conjunction with Groynes Development (2012) Ltd.		“Belfast’s $600m village approved”, The Press, 15 March 2012, p A1 “High-end project set to go”, The Press, 24 July 2013, p C1	Groynes Park
Hagley Park		Named after Hagley Hall, near Stourbridge, England, the ancestral home of George William Lyttelton, 4th Baron Lyttelton (1817-1876).		Lyttelton was chairman of the Canterbury Association from 1848. First mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1851.		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names , p 183 "Advertisements", Lyttelton Times, 28 June 1851, p 5 “Street names”, The Press, 2 September 1930, p 12	“Suicide of Lord Lyttelton”, Evening Post, 22 May 1876, 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Halswell		Named after Edmund Storr Halswell QC (1790-1874).		Halswell was a government officer in New Zealand for a short time and also a member of the management committee of the Canterbury Association. He arrived in New Zealand in 1841 and was appointed Commissioner of Native Reserves.		“European place names”, The Press, 12 January 1924, p “Halswell”, Halswell Courier, Vol 3, No 7, pp 17-18 “Ancient Halswell”, Halswell Courier, Vol 4, No 7, August 1958, p 6	The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections, p 49 “94-year-old Halswell man recalls early days” The Press, 3 January 1958, p 11

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Halswell River				The Halswell River is first mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1851.	Halswell	“Rural Sections chosen”, The Lyttelton Times, 19 April 1851, p 7 "Drainage was settlers' main problem", The Press, 10 April 1971, p 11 "Drainage created lush dairying pastures", The Press, 17 April 1971, p 11 "School holidays to suit harvests", The Press, 24 April 1971, p 13

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hansen Park	Butler's Pit	Formerly Butler's Pit. Named after John David Butler (1876-1950). Re-named Hansen Park. Named after Dr David Ernest Hansen CMG (1894-1972).	Butler Street	Butler was the manager of the Sand and Shingle Supply Company which operated in Hawford Street in the early 20th century. Originally flax wetland, a gravel pit and rubbish dump. Developed into a park and re-named Hansen Park in recognition of Hansen's work in the local community. He was principal of the Christchurch Technical Institute 1919-1949. At a meeting on 5 April 1951, Dr Hansen had proposed that the park be named Barnett Park.		"New park for Opawa", The Press, 6 April 1951, p 3 Walking Christchurch: 22 walks of discovery in and around Christchurch , pp 76-77	Z Arch 48 "Hawford Road reserve", The Press, 9 April 1951, p 6 "Subdivision at Opawa", The Press, 22 May 1951, p 5 "Dr D. E. Hansen headed Tech for 30 years", The Press, 2 January 1973, p 8

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Harewood		Named after Lord Henry Thynne Lascelles, the 3rd Earl of Harewood (1797-1857).		Lascelles was a member of the Canterbury Association from 1848.		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names , p 189	The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections , p 63
Harold Henry Park		Named after Harold Joseph Henry (1896-1980).	Wairoa Street	Henry, a greengrocer, was a long-standing member of the Labour Party. He lived in Wairoa Street.		“Memorial to Harold Henry”, Pegasus Post , 10 December 1980, pp 12 & 13	“Harold Henry: tribute to a tireless worker”, Pegasus Post , 5 March 1980, p 3
Harrington Park	Peverel Street Reserve	Named after Richard William James “Dick” Harrington (1922-2011).	Peverel Street	Harrington, a jeweller, was mayor of Riccarton 1968-1989. The re-vamped and re-named park was officially opened in 1985 after residents had complained about a lack of facilities in the area. Locals helped to design the park and were also invited to plant trees provided by the council. A competition was held to find a new name.		“Revamped park to be opened”, The Press , 7 June 1985, p 5	"Riccarton mayor Richard Harrington", Christchurch star , 19 November 2004, p A1 “Mr Riccarton’ champion of borough’s identity”, The Press , 26 March 2011, p C15

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hassals Spur	Hassal's Spur	Named after Thomas Maberly Hassal (1834-1879).	Port Hills	Hassal was a "leading merchant in the very early years of Christchurch". The Cashmere Sanatorium was built at the foot of this spur which ran "up to the great round hill above Dry Bush".		" Place names on Port Hills-Akaroa Summit Road ", The Star, 20 November 1920, p 10 [Hassal's name is incorrectly spelt as Hassall in this article.]	G. R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : H289 " Obituary ", Star, 7 October 1879, p 4 " Funeral of Mr T. M. Hassal ", Star, 9 October 1879, p 3
Heathcote		Named after Sir William Heathcote (1801-1881).		Sir William was a British landowner and Conservative politician. He was a member of the Canterbury Association from 27 March 1848. The Heathcote River is mentioned in the Lyttelton Times from 1851; the Heathcote district from 1856.		" Advertisements ", Lyttelton Times, 14 June 1856, p 12 The Canterbury Association (1848-1852): a study of its members' connections , p 53

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Heathcote Quarry Reserve	England's quarry		On the eastern slope of the Heathcote Valley, between Bridle Path Road and Rockview Place, off Major Hornbrook Road.	Originally known as England's quarry, owned by R. W. England (d. 1908). Site of Heathcote Valley Quarrying Company which began operations in May 1904. Subject of litigation in 1905 when Robert Bingley Holdsworth of Bridle Path Road claimed £50 damages from, and an injunction against, Mr. England and others, owners of the quarry adjoining his property.	Heathcote	History of quarries and brickworks in and around Christchurch , zArch 525 " An alleged nuisance ", Manawatu Standard, 12 August 1905, p 5 "Old quarry site for reserve", The Press, 20 May 1989, p 11 In the shadow of the rock: 150 years of the Heathcote Valley School and community

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The reserve was developed in 1989 after Trevor Smith Ltd. offered 6.5 hectares of land, including a disused quarry, to the Heathcote County Council. This was an alternative to paying $39,000 as a reserve contribution for a subdivision in the county.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hei Hei	Hei Hei Settlement	Hei Hei means: noise, disturbance, storm, dust, or, in modern useage, fowl.		The area was subdivided as poultry farms for returning veterans from the 1914-1918 war suffering from tuberculosis. It was opened for settlement in February 1921. These farms failed because the land was shingly and poor. Many of the houses there were built by the state in the 1960s.		Maori-Polynesian comparative dictionary "Land for soldiers", The Press, 15 February 1921, p 10 "Land for soldiers", The Press, 22 February 1921, p 10 "Women's world", Auckland Star, 29 February 1924, p 12 "Sad soldier settlers", NZ Truth, 15 March 1924, p 5 "Had no brains", Evening Post, 3 April 1924, p 9 Kyle Park management plan April 1993	"Local and General", Evening Post, 8 September 1921, p 6 The Paparua County: a concise history, p 25 Paparua County Council history, pp 54-55

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hewlings Stream		Named after Samuel Hewlings (1820-1896).	A tributary of the Wairarapa Stream.	Hewlings was a government surveyor.		Fendall's legacy: a history of Fendalton and north-west Christchurch , p 91	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : H508 "Obituary", Star, 25 February 1896, p 2
Hickory Bay			Banks Peninsula	First mentioned in The Press in 1891.		" Advertisements ", The Press, 14 April 1891, p 8	"Harry Head – the hermit of Hickory Bay", The Press, 29 March 1980, p 15
Highsted Residential		Named after John Kirby Highsted (1817-1871).	Around the Upper Styx River north of Christchurch. Bordered by Claridges Road and Highsted Road.	Highsted was a famer of Highsted Road. When the subdivision was proposed in 2013, about 350 homes were planned.		"Subdivision all go under new plan", The Press, 11 December 2013, p A3

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hillmorton		Named after Hill Morton Farm, the property of John (sometimes known as Jacob) Twigger (1817-1885).		Twigger inherited the estate of the Rev. Joseph Twigger (1802-1855). He arrived in Canterbury on the Zambesi in 1863 and settled on the land in Lincoln Road. Land for sale in Hillmorton, Lincoln Road "being part of Twigger's property known as Hillmorton" is advertised in the Star in 1879.	Twigger Street.	Beyond the city: the land and its people, Riccarton, Waimairi, Paparua, p 15 "Advertisements", Star, 23 December 1876, p 3 "Advertisements", Star, 5 March 1879, p 3 [Sources for the incorrect naming of Hillmorton are: "Death of Mr A. V. R. Morten", The Press, 13 April 1931, p 14 "Hillmorton", The Press, 8 January 1980, p 18 "Diary", The Press, 20 June 1998, p 2 "Diary", The Press, 23 June 1998, p 2]	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: T489 "Deaths", Star, 9 November 1885, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				[A myth concerning the naming of Hillmorton is linked to Richard May Morten (1827?-1909) and his son, Arthur Vernon Roscoe Morten (1878-1931). The family farmed large areas of land at Mount Pleasant, Scarborough, the Port Hills and Tai Tapu and gave generously to the community. It was thought that Hillmorton was named after them as a reward. Other descendants thought that Richard Morten had a partner, a Mr Hill – he didn't – and that the name was originally Hillmorton.]

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hillsborough		This suburb was once named Broomfield Farm, named after the dairy farm of Edward Garland (1824-1893). The farm was later re-named Hillsborough.		A daughter was born to the Garlands at Broomfield Farm, Heathcote River in July 1861. In November 1861, sections are being advertised for sale in the "new township of Hillsborough". Edward Garland died at Hillsborough in 1893. Hillsborough became part of Woolston in 1893.		The Port Hills of Christchurch, p 162 "Births", Lyttelton Times, 27 July 1861, p 5 "Advertisements", Lyttelton Times, 23 November 1861, p 6 "Deaths", The Press, 30 January 1893, p 1 "News of the day", The Press, 1 August 1893, p 4 "Early Hillsborough", The Press, 3 January 1976, p 12 "Garland-Hillsborough's first family", The Press, 10 January 1976, p 10	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: G47 "Deaths", Star, 30 January 1893, p 2 "Obituary", Star, 10 September 1908, p 3 [Obituary of Mrs Edward Garland]

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hogben		Named after Hogben School which, in turn, was named after George Hogben (1853-1920).		Hogben was an educationalist and seismologist.	Halswell Residential School		View the biography of George Hogben in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .
Holmes Park		Named after George Holmes (1822-1877).	English Street	Holmes, a farmer, came from Huntley in Canada. He owned a large house nearby which his son, John, named Huntley.			G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : H697 “Deaths”, Akaroa Mail and Banks Peninsula Advertiser , 25 September 1877, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Holmwood		Named after Holmwood, the home there of Robert Wilkin (1820-1886).		Wilkin bought land there in 1859 and his stables and racing stud were where Holmwood Road is now.	Holmwood Road	Fendall's legacy: a history of Fendalton and north-west Christchurch , p 24	"Obituary", The Lyttelton Times , 21 June 1886, p 6 "Obituary", Star , 21 June 1886, p 4 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : W479 Men of mark of New Zealand , pp 224-225

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hoon Hay		Named after Hoon Hay Farm in the village of Hoon in Derbyshire, England, the family home of Captain Wickham Talbot Harvey (1829?-1889).		Captain Harvey and his wife arrived in Canterbury on 21st October 1852 on the Duke of Portland, and took up Rural Section 491, 50 acres "above Hoon Hay". Harvey appears on the electoral roll for the district of Christchurch in 1853. He is described as a "gentleman of Hoon Hay Bush". He later returned to England. The Concise Oxford Dictionary of English Place-Names gives the meaning of hoon as hill or mound, and hay as enclosure (in modern form, hay is our word hedge).	Harvey Terrace	Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, p 12 “Electoral roll of the district of Christchurch July 5th 1853”, The Lyttelton Times, 16 July 1853, p 8 “Hoon Hay – name and history”, The Press, 13 February 1954, p 6 “Hoon Hay, tranquil valley of the Port Hills”, The Press, 27 June 1970, p 6 The Port Hills of Christchurch, pp 251-252	"Shipping news", Lyttelton Times, 23 October 1852, p 6 “Deaths”, The Hampshire Advertiser (Southampton, England), 13 March 1889, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Hoon Hay Park	Hoon Hay Domain		Mathers Road	Formed in 1953 when a public meeting of residents nominated eight members of a board to administer a piece of land in Tankerville Road as a domain. The land had been previously used for grazing, and tree-planting was immediately underway to make the area more attractive.		"Domain in Hoon Hay", The Press, 16 June 1953, p 10	"Brave new life in the suburbs", The Press, 8 May 1993, p 9
Hoon Hay Scenic Reserve	Hoon Hay Park		Summit Road	An area of 41 acres vested in Christchurch City Council in 1948.		"Summit Road Reserves", The Press, 6 August 1948, p 3	Hoon Hay Scenic Reserve
Hornby	Racecourse or Southbridge Junction.	Named by Frederick William Delamain (1835-1910). J. J. Thomson said that Delamain took the name from Hornby, Lancashire. OR Named after Admiral Hornby		Delamain owned Yaldhurst, a racing stables and stud on the West Coast Road. Admiral Hornby was a guest of the Riccarton Jockey Club at a race meeting at which Delamain's horses raced. The post office was		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names , p 211. [Reed's card index held at the Alexander Turnbull Library gives Reed's source as Canon Nevill's manuscript on Pakeha place names held at the Hocken	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : D193 "Obituary", The Press, 18 May 1910, p 8 "Obituary", Grey River Argus, 25 May 1910, p 1

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
		who visited Christchurch in 1870 as leader of the British Flying Squadron.		originally the Southbridge Junction Post Office. Its name was changed to Hornby Post Office on 2 September 1878.		Library, Dunedin.] “Local and General”, Star, 21 January 1870, p 2 "Local and General", Star, 9 September 1878, p 2 "An Admiral, not a Lancashire town: Is this how Hornby got its name?", The Press, 17 June 1978, p 14 “Hornby centennial 1878-1978”, The Press, 30 August 1978, p 15	“The squadron at Lyttelton”, Daily Southern Cross, 31 January 1870, p 3 New Zealand Post Offices : an alphabetical list of every Post Office and Telephone/graph Office opened in New Zealand, with community activity, location, and period open. Includes a record on name changes, alternate names, and errors, p 96 "Hornby may become the Hutt Valley of Canterbury", The Press, 30 September 1959, p 18

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
							“Delamain Residential Subdivision”, The Press, 24 May 2007, p B4
Horotane Valley		Named by John Flinders Scott (1876-1941).		Scott, a pastoral farmer, subdivided land in this area. The Horotane Valley is first mentioned in The Press in 1922.		Sumner to Ferrymead: a Christchurch history , p 207 The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 142 “ Advertisements ”, The Press, 20 May 1922, p 19	“ Obituary ”, The Press, 30 July 1941, p 8
Horseshoe Lake	Horseshoe Lagoon	Named because it is shaped like a horseshoe.	Burwood	An offshoot of the Avon River. Caleb Selfe bought Rural Section 4095, 20 acres of “waterholes, near the Horseshoe Lagoon”.		Burwood All Saints’ Church 1877-1977 , p 88 Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30 1863 , p 86

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Huia Gilpin Reserve		Named after Huia Gilpin (1914-1999).	211 Huntsbury Avenue	Gilpin was director of the Parks and Reserves Department in Christchurch in the 1940s and 1950s.			“Director of parks, reserves”, Christchurch Star, 10 September 1999, p B6
Huntsbury	St Martins Hill, Huntsbury Town, Huntsbury-on-the Hill and Huntsbury Hill.			“Huntsbury, Hills Road, St Martins” is mentioned in The Press in 1881. “Huntsbury Estate” is referred to in The Press in 1918. St Martins Hill is referred to in for sale notices as Huntsbury Town in 1921 and 1924 and then Huntsbury-on-the Hill. Later re-named Huntsbury Hill and Huntsbury.		“Advertisements”, The Press, 27 April 1881, p 1 “The property market”, The Press, 19 October 1918, p 10 “Suburbs past and present”, The Christchurch Mail, 6 April 1999, p 11 The Port Hills of Christchurch, p 189	Huntsbury Spur from Ti Kōuka Whenua
Hyde Park	Blair Block	Formerly Blair Block. Named after Gilbert Hunter Blair (1909-1978). Re-developed as	Off Withells Road in Avonhead.	Blair farmed at 231 Withells Road in the 1940s. His 44ha farm was sold to the Housing Corporation in 1956 and zoned rural in 1961. From		“‘Blair block’ may be rezoned rural”, The Press, 15 December 1981 “Blair block	“Blair Block to be developed”, The Press, 18 May 1984, p 5 “Plans to build in

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
		Hyde Park. Named after Hyde Park in London.		1973 it was the site of nurseries belonging to the Ministry of Works and Development. The 456-section Hyde Park development was a joint venture between the Housing Corporation and a Carter Group Ltd. and Pavroc Holdings Ltd. consortium from May 1985. It has a central Hyde Park in Hawthornden Road with interior streets named after stately homes of England and other English placenames. The subdivision caused much controversy when first proposed and residents petitioned against what they mistakenly thought was to be a Housing Corporation subdivision developed in the area. The first sections went on		development a 'radically new' milestone", The Press, 5 July 1985 "Development starts on former Housing Corp. subdivision", The Press, 5 September 1986, p 4 "Hyde Park, Huntingdon stage", The Press, 18 September 1991, p 27 "Last sections for sale", The Press, 15 September 1993	Avonhead", The Press, 20 November 1984, p 9

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				sale in September 1986, the last in September 1993.
Ilam		Named after Ilam, the home of the Hon. John Charles Watts-Russell (1825-1875).		Watts-Russell settled in Canterbury in 1850, building a house and naming it Ilam after Ilam Hall, his ancestral home in Staffordshire, England His Canterbury property was in existence in 1851. The suburb was officially named by the Waimairi County Council in 1959.		Fendall's legacy: a history of Fendalton and north-west Christchurch, pp 49-50 The old cottage at Ilam, built by J. C. Watts-Russell in 1856 "Advertisements", The Lyttelton Times, 26 July 1851, p 1 "Pilgrim days", Timaru Herald, 10 September 1910, p 1 "Burnside, Ilam, Avonhead", The Press, 19 May 1959, p 9	View the biography of Elizabeth Rose Rebecca Watts Russell in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography . " The late Mr J. C. Watts-Russell ", Star, 3 April 1875, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Ilam Park				Developed in 1990 by Danne Mora Holdings, the company of Wayne Francis (1943-1999). The former Christchurch Teachers' College grounds were subdivided into 37 sections. The area covers 3.5ha and there are covenants on all sections to protect the standard.	Ilam	"Harness racing identity gave much to sport", The Press, 1 July 1999, p 5	"First 12 sections for sale", The Press, 19 September 1990, p 57 "Harness racing identity gave much to sport", The Press, 1 July 1999, p 5
Ilam Stream		Named because the Ilam Stream joins the River Avon in the grounds of the old Ilam homestead.		The name gazetted by the New Zealand Geographic Board in 1968 for an upper tributary of the Avon River. It had been recommended by the Canterbury University council to avoid the confusion of a variety of names used in the past.	Ilam	"New names for Upper Avon streams", The Press, 23 March 1968, p 19

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Islington		Named after Islington, the London borough which had a large cattle market and agricultural hall.		The name was first given to a railway siding which had been called Factory. The new name appears for the first time in the train timetable printed in May 1889, the year that the New Zealand Refrigerating Company's Islington Freezing Works was opened.		A history of the New Zealand Refrigerating Company , p 102 & 107	" The Templeton Freezing Works ", Star, 17 April 1889, p 4
Jack Hinton Reserve		Named after John Daniel "Jack" Hinton (1909-1997).	72 Bexley Road	Created in Hinton's honour at the suggestion of Hap Hill of the Bexley Residents' Association with the help of former city councillor Alistair James. The reserve has a Greek theme: "The reserve is encircled by kalamata olive trees, capturing the scene in Kalamata, the Greek town where Hinton almost singlehandedly took out the German gunnery	Jack Hinton Drive	Burwood/Pegasus Community Board agenda 18 November 2002 "Reserve honours hero", The Christchurch Mail: eastern edition, 23 November 2005, p 8 "Anzac Dr perfect memorial site", The Christchurch Mail: eastern edition, 22 August 2013, p 4	"Last surviving VC holder passes on", The Press, 30 June 1997 p. 1 & 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				positions. The centrepiece, a volcanic boulder from the Port Hills, is inlaid with white stone from Greece set above a memorial plaque". Concrete paving is in the form of the Victoria Cross. Five beds of red roses represent the structure of Hinton's 20th Battalion. Hinton and his wife often walked beside the Avon River when they lived in Bexley. The reserve was opened on 18 November 2005. Its site was red-zoned after the earthquakes of 2010/2011.
Jacksons Creek	Jackson's Creek	Probably named after the Rev. Thomas Jackson	Commences east side of Wrights Road; recommences	Jackson was Bishop-designate of Lyttelton. He spent only six weeks in Canterbury, arriving in	Mandeville Street	Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to	Thomas Jackson : bishop designate of Lyttelton

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
		(1812-1886).	at Lincoln Road; recommences at Ruskin Street; recommences at Brougham Street upstream from Wilsons Road; recommences at Ensors/Opawa Roads.	Lyttelton on the Castle Eden on 7 February 1851 and departing on 15 March 1851 on the William Alfred. He purchased Rural Sections 121 and 123, 50 acre blocks both on Lower Lincoln Road near the Heathcote Bridge; Rural Section 141, 100 acres, on the Lower Lincoln Road; Rural Section 146, 100 acres, on Lincoln and Riccarton Road. Jackson's Creek is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1856. It is referred to in the minutes of the Sydenham Borough Council in 1877-1878. It also appears on an 1879 map.		April 30 1863, pp 3 & 4 “Rural Sections chosen”, The Lyttelton Times, 26 April 1851, p 3 “Rural Sections chosen”, The Lyttelton Times, 3 May 1851, p 3 “Advertisements”, Lyttelton Times, 29 November 1856, p 9 Sydenham Borough Council minute book 1877-1878, held at Christchurch City Council archives. Plan of Christchurch and suburbs, 1879 The Canterbury church property: articles, pp 45-49	Sydenham: the model borough of Christchurch: an informal history, pp 23-25 The Blain Biographical Directory of Anglican Clergy in the Pacific The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections, p 60 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: J 32 John Robert Godley of Canterbury The evolution of a city, pp 67 & 78 “Sydenham and its sand ridge”, The

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
							Press, 12 August 1980, p 17
Janet Stewart Reserve		Named after Margaret Jane "Janet" Stewart (1896-1957).	Marshland Road and Lower Styx Road.	Janet Stewart's son, Edmund Charles Stewart, whose property was at 8 Lower Styx Road, died in 1993. He bequeathed the land for the reserve to Christchurch City Council on condition it be used as a reserve and named to honour his mother.		Settling near the Styx River , p 187	"Planting invitation", The Press, 11 September 1996, p 3
Jeffreys Park		Named after Charles Alured Jeffreys (1821-1904).	Jeffreys Road	Formed on the land which was formerly the Waimairi District Council's works yard. Lois Edith Herdman (d. 1993) was instrumental in retaining the area for a reserve.	Jeffreys Road. Also Bryndwr.	"Council yards face sporting future", The Press, 16 June 1993, p 11	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : J85
Jellie Park		Named after James Jellie (1889-1965).	Ilam Road and Greers Road.	Jellie was born in the Grey Valley and educated in Greymouth, but even as a boy was attracted to the parks and gardens of Christchurch. He arrived	Greers Road and Ilam Road.	"Opening of Jellie Park next Saturday", The Press, 20 September 1960, pp 10 & 21 "Death of man who

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				there in 1916 and became a market gardener. He also had a poultry farm at 321 Russley Road until his death. The land for Jellie Park was gifted by him to the Crown in 1956 and vested in the Waimairi County Council for development. The gift was announced by the Prime Minister Sid Holland in a specially recorded radio message broadcast on 9 May 1956 and the park was opened on 24 September 1960. Money for the development of the 12 hectare park came from the Housing Corporation through proceeds from the sale of land which it had set aside for recreation in the area. James Jellie never married.		gave Jellie Park”, The Press, 29 January 1965, p 10

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
John Britten Reserve		Named after John Britten (1950-1995).	Mount Pleasant: it is bounded on two sides by the Summit Road and Mount Pleasant Road.	Britten received international praise for revolutionary construction methods in his Britten bikes. Land for the reserve on the Port Hills was bought by the Christchurch City Council in 1995 and was originally to be named the Mount Pleasant Spur Reserve.		“New reserve may be named after engineer Britten”, The Press, 13 February 1996, p 4 “Mount Pleasant reserve dedicated to memory of John Britten”, The Press, 11 November 1997, p 4	Dare to dream: the John Britten story John Britten

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
John Olliver Reserve		Named after John Ollivier (1812-1893).	John Olliver Terrace	Ollivier arrived in Lyttelton in 1853 on the John Taylor. His obituary says he “selected land on the Lower Lincoln Road opposite where the Mount Magdala Asylum was later built”. He was Chairman of the City Council in 1864 and the Resident Magistrate at Lyttelton and Christchurch. [The name of the reserve is incorrect, missing the second “i” in Ollivier’s name.]	Olliviers Road	“Obituary”, The Star, 1 August 1893, p 1 “Obituary”, The Lyttelton Times, 1 August 1893, p 5	The Cyclopedia of New Zealand. Vol 3, p 93 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: 069 “Makers of Canterbury”, The Press, 17 May 1930, p 13 “Excerpts from a letter”, Halswell Courier, Vol 4, No 6, p 14

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Jollies Bush		Named after Edward Jollie (1825-1894).	At the west head of Sumner Valley and on the west side of the Summit Road.	A scenic reserve of three acres given by brothers, Richard May Downes Morten (1877-1950) and Arthur Roscoe Vernon Morten (1878-1931). This land was once worked by Jollie.		"Place names", The Star, 4 December 1920, p 9 (written by H. G. Ell).	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: J169 "Obituary", The Press, 9 August 1894, p 5e "Obituary", Star, 9 August 1894, p 1 "Death of Mr A. V. R. Morten", The Press, 13 April 1931, p 14
Kahurangi Drainage Reserve		Kahurangi: means blue.	75 Awatea Road, 83 Awatea Road, 91 Awatea Road	The colour blue "depicts the blue (storm) water ponds" in the Wigram Skies subdivision. Named in 2013.		Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 17 September 2013 Riccarton/Wigram Community Board minutes 17 September 2013	Wigram Skies

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Kennedys Bush		Named after Thomas Kennedy (1819-1881).		Kennedy, a whaler and a sawyer, lived at Waterford Farm, Halswell. First mentioned in The Press in 1900.		" Political notes ", The Press, 28 June 1900, p 6 " Pilgrim days ", Timaru Herald, 23 September 1910, p 5 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: K82 "Kennedys Bush and the pioneer timber men of Canterbury", The Press, 2 October 1976, p 12 "Kennedys Bush Road - a historic route", The Press, 9 October 1976, p 13	" Deaths ", Star, 13 June 1881, p 2 " Kennedy's Bush ", The Press, 2 May 1906, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Kennedys Bush Scenic Reserve		Named after Thomas Kennedy (1819-1881).	Port Hills	Kennedy, a whaler and a sawyer, lived at Waterford Farm, Halswell. An area of 126 acres vested in Christchurch City Council in 1948.		“Summit Road Reserves”, The Press, 6 August 1948, p 3 "Pioneer cottage site emerges from a hillside", The Press, 23 November 1990, p 17	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : K82 “Deaths”, Star, 13 June 1881, p 2 “ News of the day ”, The Press, 8 May 1908, p 6
Kerrs Reach	Kerr's Reach	Named after the Kerr family, Peter (1814-1877) and Margaret (1820-1898) and their children.		Kerr was one of the lessees of the Sandhills Run from the early 1850s until his death after a horse riding accident. He was also a judge at agricultural shows. The Kerrs were associated with the horse racing industry for several generations. A great-grandson, Maitland Hamilton Williams (1908?-1970), has a replica horseshoe on his gravestone. Kerr's Reach is first	Wildwood Avenue	Early Dallington , p 3 Avonside Parish leaflet, July 1930, pp 3-4, held at Anglican Archives “ Aquatics ”, The Press, 13 November 1901, p 7 “ Pilgrim days ”, Timaru Herald, 19 November 1910, p 2 “The wild east”, Pegasus Post , 14 December 1977, p 4 Burwood All Saints’ Church 1877-1977 , p 1	"Town and Country", The Lyttelton Times , 27 April 1877, p 2 “ News of the day ”, The Press, 28 April 1877, p 2 “ Fatal Accident ”, Star, 26 April 1877, p 2 Along the hills: a history of the Heathcote Road Board and the Heathcote County Council 1864-

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				mentioned in The Press in 1901. The cut was put in ostensibly to improve drainage, but probably because of lobbying from rowing clubs to have it completed in time for the Christchurch Centennial Games in 1950.			1989, p 14 "Early Christchurch", The Star, 24 June 1922, p 19 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: K109

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Kildare Estate		Named after Kildare in Ireland.	Redcliffs	The subdivision was developed by Jerry Blakely and his wife, Sue. Her great-grandfather was James Edward Fitzgerald (1818-1896, a journalist, provincial superintendent, politician and public servant. He was the youngest son of Gerald FitzGerald, landowner, of Kilminchy, Queen's County, Ireland. The land had earlier been farmed by Desmond Harold Pannell (1906-1996) who had also grown flowers there for the market. He left the land to a nephew who later sold it to the Blakelys. Developed from 1998.		"Kildare subdivision", The Press, 19 August 1998, p 24-25 Information about Harold Pannell's ownership of the land obtained from a letter written by Dianne Monk to the Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board on 3 October 2005.	View the biography of James Edward FitzGerald in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .
King George V Reserve		Named after King George V (1865-1936).	Centaurus Road

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Kingsford Smith Reserve		Named after Charles Edward Kingsford Smith (1897-1935).	Bennington Way, Wigram	Kingsford Smith, an aviator, was the first pilot to cross the Tasman Sea, arriving at Wigram on 11 September 1928. There is a plaque in the reserve commemorating the flight. In the Wigram Skies subdivision where the place names have an aviation theme. Named in 2013.	Wigram Skies	Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 17 September 2013 Riccarton/Wigram Community Board minutes 17 September 2013	Wigram Skies
Kintyre Estates		Named after Kintyre, a peninsula in western Scotland, in the southwest of Argyll and Bute.	Off Masham Road into Neathwest Avenue, Yaldhurst.	Developed by Enterprise Homes Ltd.			Kintyre Estates

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Knights Stream Park		Named because Knights Stream borders the development.	Bordered by Whincops Road, Halswell Junction Road and Quaifes Road.	Built on 120 hectares of former farming and horse-breeding land. Knights Stream Park is one half of a two-estate development which also includes Longhurst. The $250 million project by Fulton Hogan was designed to provide 1400 sections which were to be opened in stages. The first house was constructed in 2012. The development was brought forward because of post-earthquake demand. Streets were named with a theme of World Heritage sites and National Parks and major parks from around the world. Named in 2012.		Riccarton/Wigram Community Board Agenda 3 April 2012 "New home building on a roll", The Press, 1 September 2012, p G2	Knights Stream Park

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Kyle Park	Smart's Pit	Formerly Smart's Pit. Named after Samuel Smart (1822-1897). Re-named Kyle Park. Named after Colin William Alexander Kyle (1910-1977).	Waterloo Road	About 1884 Samuel Smart and his sons established Smart's Pit, a stone-breaking plant in Hornby, which was operated there until 1968 when the land was bought by the Paparua County Council for use as a rubbish dump. The dump was closed in 1973 and the park was developed. It was proposed to make the pit a sports amphitheatre, laid out with terraces descending to fields three or four metres below the level of Waterloo Road. Kyle, a Yaldhurst farmer and Paparua county councillor, was chairman of the reserves and recreation committee 1963-1975.	Ashgrove Reserve, Smarts Road and Bradford Park.	Kyle Park management plan April 1993 Paparua County County history , p 52 "Wigram Park", The Press, 7 August 1973, p 14	" Obituary ", The Press, 14 April 1897, p 5c "Playground for Halswell", The Press, 5 July 1973, p 9 "Yaldhurst rep. dies", The Press, 1 March 1977, p 11

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Latters Spur	Latter's Spur	Named after Edward Circuit Latter (1830-1896).	Port Hills	Latter, a quarryman, opened a store at Akaroa and bought land in Barry's Bay. He was a member of the Canterbury Provincial Council. Latter's Spur is "the great spur of the Cashmere Hills which runs from Rhodes Convalescent Home to the summit of Te Heru O Kahu Kura (the Sugar Loaf)".	Circuit Street	"Place names on Port Hills-Akaroa Summit Road", The Star, 20 November 1920, p 10 The Port Hills of Christchurch , pp 209, 213	"Obituary" , Star, 5 September 1896, p 7
Laura Kent Reserve		Named after Laura Selina Kent (1849-1925).	Woolston	Laura Kent spent her life at the family home, Radley, at 27 Isis Street which later became part of Cumnor Terrace.	Radley Street and Tavender Radley Street and Tavender Street.	"Radley Park", The Press, 30 March 1994, p 49	"The late Miss Laura Kent" , The Press, 7 April 1925, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Leslie Park		Named after James Leslie (1855-1937).	Main South Road	Leslie, a farmer, was one of the original councillors of the Paparua County Council when it was formed in 1911. He was chairman from 1912 until his death. Named in 1931.	Brynley Street	" County Councils ", The Press, 21 December 1931, p 5 Beyond the city: the land and its people, Riccarton, Waimairi, Paparua , p 185	" Obituary ", The Press, 13 September 1937, p 10
Linden Grove		Named after the lime trees (also known as linden trees) at the entrance to the subdivision.	Hillmorton	A 188 lot residential subdivision off Sylvan Street, between Lincoln Road and Curletts Road. Formed on part of the former gardens of the Sunnyside Hospital, Annex Road. Developed by Ngāi Tahu Property Group and was opened in 2008.		"Linden Grove opens", The Press, 16 April 2008, p E5 "Linden Grove Pavilions: live the lifestyle", The Press, 18 April 2009, p H12

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Linwood		Named after Linwood House, in Brittan Street, the home of Joseph Brittan (1805-1867). The name means the wood by the lin, which is the old name for a pool formed by a river.		Brittan was a surgeon, a newspaper editor, provincial councillor and brother of William Guise Brittan (1809-1876). He named his home in Christchurch after the original Linwood in Hampshire from whence he had emigrated. The Linwood Estate was auctioned in 1878. Linwood was named in 1882 when "a meeting of ratepayers of No 1 ward of the Heathcote Road District...decided that the ward, which included Phillipstown, Avonville and other eastern districts of the city should be constituted a town district under the Town Districts		"Land sales", The Press, 10 July 1878, p 2 "The Star, Friday, August 26, 1882", Star, 25 August 1882, p 3 "News of the day", The Press, 25 August 1882, p 2 "Avonside was first consecrated church in Canterbury", The Sun, 20 February 1932, p 17 History of the Avonside parish district Gilby neighbourhood improvement plan, p 9	The evolution of a city, p 32 [Obituary], The Evening Post, 9 November 1867, p 2 "House with a history", Pegasus Post, 19 October 1977, p 9

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				Act 1881. It was resolved that the name of the new district should be Linwood. The borough joined the city of Christchurch in 1903.
Linwood Park	Linwood Recreation Ground	Named because it is in Linwood which, in turn, is named after Linwood House, in Brittan Street, the home of Joseph Brittan (1805-1867). The name means the wood by the lin, which is the old name for a pool formed by a river.	Aldwins Road	The land for the park was bought in 1900. A Government subsidy of £1000 was received, and the total cost of land for the park was £2060.	Linwood	“Notes and memoranda”, The Press, 4 May 1899, p 6 "The Linwood recreation ground question", The Press, 4 August 1899, p 3

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
						"Linwood Recreation Ground", Star, 15 August 1899, p 4 "The Linwood Recreation Reserve", The Press, 10 February 1900, p 9 "Linwood", The Press, 29 May 1900, p 3
Little Hagley Park	Helmore's Plantation	Formerly Helmore's Plantation. Named after Joseph Cornish Helmore (1832-1920). Re-named Little Hagley Park.	Adjacent to the Carlton Mill Bridge.	In 1862 the Canterbury provincial government set aside part of what is now Little Hagley Park for Māori to tether their horses when visiting Christchurch.	Helmore's Lane	A history of Hagley Park, Christchurch, with special reference to its botany, p (3) Canterbury Provincial Council, Secretary's Office, outwards correspondence (856/1862), to J. W. Stack, 25 July 1862. CH 287 item CP 421 held at Archives New Zealand.	G. R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: H186 "Mr Joseph C. Helmore", Ashburton Guardian, 27 December 1920, p 5

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Little River			Banks Peninsula	"The Little River" is first mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1854.		" Advertisements ", The Lyttelton Times, 1 April 1854, p 8
Little Oaks		Named after two 12-metre oak trees were moved to the subdivision from Kilmore Street.	A residential subdivision off Buchanans Road.	“The theme for the naming of roads within Little Oaks is one that relates to the surrounding treescape.” Named in 2007.		Gillman Wheelans Ltd, Spring 2007 newsletter	“Little Oaks residential subdivision”, The Press, 1 June 2007, pp C7 & D1

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Longhurst		Named after Longhurst, the property of the McDermott family.	Bordered by Whincops Road, Murphys Road, Quaifes Road and Halswell Junction Road.	For over 90 years, three generations of the McDermott family farmed the land where the Longhurst subdivision was developed. Their sheep breeding operation was called Longhurst. Eugene Clement McDermott (1884-1939), son of John and Bridget McDermott, farmed at Halswell. His son, Eugene Thomas McDermott, later took over the running of the farm. Their operation included stud, sheep, horse breeding and racing, and, in later years, dairying. Longhurst is one half of a two-estate development which also includes Knights Stream Park. Named in 2012.	Maka Lane and McDermott Place.	Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 3 April 2012 Information on the naming of Longhurst supplied by Greg Dew of Fulton Hogan. "New home building on a roll", The Press, 1 September 2012, p G2	Longhurst

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				The $250 million project by Fulton Hogan was designed to provide 1400 sections which were to be opened in stages. The first house was constructed in 2012. The development was brought forward because of post-earthquake demand. Streets in the subdivision are named after local identities and homesteads.
Long Reach			Area of the Avon River with Avonside Drive to the south and Locksley Avenue to the north.	Original course of the Avon River. The "cut" is where a new course was created for the Avon and the meandering course of the river done away with about 1949-1950 so there would be a straight stretch of river for when Canterbury's Centennial Games were staged in December 1950.		Information supplied in 2006 by Richard Greenaway.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Lower Frees Creek			Rehua Marae, 79 Springfield Road.		Frees Creek		Lower Frees Creek
Lyttelton	Port Victoria and Port Cooper.	Named Port Victoria. Re-named Port Cooper. Named after Daniel Cooper (1785-1853). Re-named Port Lyttelton and then Lyttelton. Named after George William Lyttelton, 4th Baron Lyttelton (1817-1876).		Cooper was a convict transported to New South Wales who became a successful merchant, financier, shipowner and shipping agent. Re-named Lyttelton by 1850. Lyttelton was chairman of the management committee of the Canterbury Association. The source says at the time it was regarded as "the chief town of the settlement".		" Editorial ", The New Zealand, 27 November 1850, p 2	The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections , p 67

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Macfarlane Park	Part of Emmetts block.	Emmetts block was named after Arthur William Emmett (d. 1948). Macfarlane Park was named after Sir Robert Mafeking Macfarlane (1900-1981).	Acheson Avenue	Emmett's farm was subdivided for housing in the late 1940s. Macfarlane Park was developed on low-lying land in the Emmett farm not suitable for housing. It was vested in the Christchurch City Council on 14 June 1954. Macfarlane was a driver, trade unionist and politician, being the Labour mayor of Christchurch 1938-1941 and 1950-1958.	Emmett Street and Emmetts block.	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , pp 18-19	“Major housing development in the Shirley district”, The Press, 31 March 1953, p 3 View the biography of Robert Mafeking Macfarlane in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Mabel Howard Reserve		Named after Mabel Bowden Howard (1894-1972).	151 King Street	Mabel Howard was a trade unionist, community worker and the Labour member of parliament for East Christchurch 1943-1969.	Mabel Howard Place		View the biography of Mabel Bowden Howard in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography . "Miss Howard dies", The Press, 24 June 1972, p 1
Magazine Bay		Formerly named Bakers Bay. Named after an early resident named Baker. Re-named Magazine Bay. Named because a powder magazine was erected there in 1874.	Lyttelton Harbour	Baker's Bay is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1863. Magazine Bay is first mentioned in the Evening Post in 1919. Both names are still being mentioned in newspapers in the 1930s.		" Shipping Intelligence ", Lyttelton Times, 22 October 1863, p 4 " Advertisements ", The Press, 2 March 1874, p 4 " Local and general ", Evening Post, 25 July 1919, p 6 " Boat harbour at Lyttelton ", The Press, 1 April 1938, p 3 The story of Lyttelton, 1849-1949 , p 55

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Mairehau		Named after Rose Mairehau Hutton, née Rhodes, (1894-1991). The New Zealand native shrub mairehau, Phebalium nudum, is named after Maire, an invisible Māori mist maiden.		Rose Hutton, known to her family as Maire, was the daughter of Arthur Edgar Gravenor Rhodes (1859-1922), mayor of Christchurch in 1901, and his wife, Rosetta "Rose" Rhodes (1865?-1932). The Rhodes family owned land in the Marshland area. During World War One, residents felt that the district needed a name to use when holding functions to farewell soldiers leaving for the front. When they read the account of Rose Rhodes' wedding to Major George Frederick Hutton (1882?-1955) at Christ Church, Down Street, Piccadilly, London, on 9 December 1915, they decided to use her middle name. It was also a way of		“Women in print”, Evening Post, 31 January 1916, p 9 “The country”, The Press, 20 May 1916, p 3 “Mairehau”, The Press, 15 December 1916, p 9	“Death of Mr A. E. G. Rhodes”, The Press, 27 December 1922, p 7 “Tribute to Major G. F. Hutton”, The Press, 28 October 1955, p 7 Heaton Rhodes of Otahuna: the illustrated biography “Obituary, Mr W. J. Walter”, The Press, 29 October 1946, p 8 “Arthur Rhodes – social lion of early Christchurch”, The Press, 10 March 1984, p 17 “Touch of class”, The Press, 15 May 1996, p 45

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				acknowledging the contribution of her parents to the district. Mr & Mrs Rhodes presented the district with a piano for their hall from their own home in appreciation of the naming of the district after their daughter.
Malvern Park			Innes Road	Formed on land transferred to the city by the Church Property Trustees in 1922. It was subdivided in 1927 and the council, under the Municipal Corporations Act, took part of the property for a recreation reserve.		" New ground acquired ", The Press, 16 December 1926, p 10 "Story of 700 acres of church property", The Press, 25 February 1947, p 6	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves , p 9

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Mandeville Reserve		Named because it is on the corner of Mandeville Street and Riccarton Road.	Mandeville Street	The reserve was donated to the citizens of Riccarton Borough by John Heaton Rhodes (1888-1960), a lawyer and chairman of the Christchurch Press Company Ltd. for 24 years. He was the last owner of Oakford, a house on eight acres on this site. The house was demolished in 1965.	Mandeville Street and Oakford Close.		"Obituary", The Press, 4 August 1960, p 12
Marleys Hill		Named after William Henry Marley (1816-1896).	Summit Road	Marley was a pioneer architect and builder.		"Hoon Hay, tranquil valley of the Port Hills", The Press, 27 June 1970, p 6 The Port Hills of Christchurch , pp 253-254	" Mr W. Marley ", Star, 3 August 1896, p 2 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies : M114 " The Summit Road ", Star, 17 March 1909, p 4

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Marshland	Rhodes' Swamp	Formerly Rhodes' Swamp. Named after Robert Heaton Rhodes (1815-1884). Re-named Marshland. Named because of the peaty soil in the area.		In 1872 Polish immigrants arrived by the Friedelburg. They laboured on the draining of Rhodes Swamp which proved very suitable for vegetable growing and dairy farming. They were tenants of Rhodes and Edward Reece (1834?-1885) who both had large landholdings at Marshland. Rhodes' Swamp is first mentioned in the Star in 1873. Also called the Marshland Estate as early as 1869 and appears to have been given both names for some years.	Mairehau	The evolution of a city , p 80 " Local and General ", Star, 21 September 1872, p 2 " Advertisements ", Star, 13 October 1869, p 3 " The City Reserves ", Star, 22 February 1890, p 3 "From a bog to the market garden of New Zealand", The Sun, 25 March 1933, p 17 " General news ", The Press, 29 January 1935, p 10 Settling near the Styx River , pp 179-180	" Obituary ", Star, 16 September 1885, p 3 " Obituary ", The Press, 4 August 1915, p 6 [Obituary of Mrs. C. H. Walter] "Refugees turned Marshland swamp to garden", The Press, 27 September 1975, p 11 "Countryside wanderings 1911...1979", The Press, 31 December 1979, p 7

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Mary Dixon Park		May have been named after Mary Dixon (1817?-1898). OR May have been named after Mary A. Dixon.	489 Ferry Road	Mary Dixon arrived on the Charlotte Jane in 1850 with her husband and five children. In 1854 she opened the first school in the area in a small v-shaped hut in Ferry Road. Mary A. Dixon, the widow of James Dixon, is listed in the 1935 Christchurch City Council electoral roll living in Linwood Avenue. The Christchurch City Council leased land in Linwood Avenue, adjoining Linwood Park, from Mrs Dixon during the 1920s and 1930s. The land was used by the works department for a horse paddock and by the reserves department as a nursery. The lease was renewed in 1934 for a further period.		“Obituary”, Star, 9 March 1898, p 4 “News of the day”, Press, 9 March 1898, p 5 “City Council”, The Press, 19 March 1929, p 11 “City Council”, The Press, 22 May 1934, p 7 Bylaws, Finance and Departmental committee report, Christchurch City Council minutes, 1939, CH 380 held at Christchurch City Council archives.

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				Mary Dixon Park was developed in 1939.
Mary Duncan Park		Named after Mary Duncan (1864-1947).	Port Hills	Mary Duncan was the daughter of George Duncan (1820-1894), a farmer of Opawa, and his wife, Jean. George Duncan claimed to be the first settler to turn a furrow in Canterbury. He was also one of the founders of the Opawa School where Mary was later headmistress. Mary Duncan bequeathed the family home, Earnbank, and about sixty acres of land to the city for use as a reserve. The park was originally to be known as Duncan Park to honour her parents.	Waimairi School	The Port Hills of Christchurch, pp 156-157 Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 45 Waimairi School golden jubilee celebrations, 17th-20th April 1964, p 17 “Decision on Heathcote homestead held over”, The Press, 20 September 1962, p 12	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: D504 “Deaths”, Star, 3 March 1894, p 5 “Obituary”, The Press, 7 March 1894, p 2f “Town & country: obituary”, The Lyttelton Times, 6 March 1894, p 5 AJHR [1894] Vol II, E1, p 42

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Marylands Reserve			Birmingham Drive, Middleton	In the Marylands Industrial Estate of 21.33 hectares, developed in the 1970s by the Waimairi County Council and the Nazareth House Trust Board. The council bought land from the Brothers of St. John of God in the mid-1960s, zoned it industrial and began developing it along with the nuns' portion in the mid-1970s. (The subdivision had no association with the Marylands Special School in Halswell).		“Little interest shown in industrial land”, The Press, 2 November 1979, p 20 “Sales boom boosts council’s joint-venture land return”, The Press, 20 August 1985, p 36 Information researched in 2011 by Lyn Gifford, Christchurch City Libraries.	“St Joseph’s Boys’ Home”, The Press, 11 April 1921, p 8

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Masham Park		Named after Masham in Ripon, North Yorkshire.		Emerson Clarkson (1848-1926) and his brother, Thomas Clarkson (1842-1901), emigrated from Masham to Canterbury in 1867 and bought 128 acres from which the town of Masham was surveyed. First mentioned in The Press in 1878 when the Clarkson brothers advertised 130 acres of the Boulton Estate for auction, of which 20 acres was to be laid out as a township named Masham. The first street names in the Masham Park subdivision were approved in March 2009. A subdivision by Enterprise Homes Ltd.		Beyond the city: the land and its people, Riccarton, Waimairi, Paparua, p 53 “Advertisements”, The Press, 26 June 1878, p 3 "The suburb of Masham is steeped in history", The Christchurch Star, 24 April 1970, p 8 Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 10 March 2009 Riccarton/Wigram Community Board agenda 24 March 2009	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: C354 & C357 “Obituary”, Star, 3 May 1901, p 3 “Personal matters”, Evening Post, 31 May 1926, p 9

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
McCombs Memorial Garden, Woolston Park		Named after James McCombs (1873-1933) and Elizabeth Reid McCombs (1873-1935).	Woolston Park	James McCombs was a draper's assistant, socialist, land speculator and politician. Elizabeth McCombs was a socialist, social worker and politician. A native plant garden dedicated to James and Elizabeth Reid McCombs in May 1934. It was to be "a fitting memorial to the services rendered to the city by the late Mr and Mrs J. McCombs". Rennel Brothers erected the stone wall and a sun dial, the central feature of the garden.		"A memorial", The Christchurch Times, 22 May 1934, p 10 "A memorial to the late Mr J McCombs, MP", The Christchurch Times, 13 September 1934, p 3 "McCombs garden memorial", Christchurch Star-Sun, 14 January 1938, p 9 Report to council of the Hagley-Ferrymead Community Board 4 June 1997	View the biography of James McCombs in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography. View the biography of Elizabeth Reid McCombs in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography.

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
McCormacks Bay		Named after William McCormack (1822-1868).		McCormack arrived in Lyttelton on the Charlotte Jane in 1850. He bought Rural Section 563, 25 acres on the "Sumner Road, near Moa Bone Point" and Rural Section 866, 25 acres "near Ferry, Sumner Road". On 1 October 1856 William, son of William and Jane McCormack of Sumner, was baptised at St Mary's Church, Sumner.		Province of Canterbury, New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, pp 14 & 19 Crown Grant Book, Rural Section 563, dated 1 September 1857, CH 290, 42/3, held at Christchurch City Council archives. Crown Grant Book, Rural Section 866, dated 15 June 1858, CH 290, 42/4, held at Christchurch City Council archives.	"Fatal accident", The Press, 29 December 1868, p 2 "The late Mr McCormack", The Lyttelton Times, 1 January 1869, p 2 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: Mac78
McLeans Island	"The island" and Kaiapoi Island.	Named after John and Allan McLean (1822-1907).		The McLean brothers once owned a run there. Originally an island in the Waimakariri River but earthworks joined it to the mainland.		Waimakariri, Canterbury's river of cold rushing water	View the biography of Allan McLean in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography .

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Memorial Square			Papanui	Formerly the site of the settlers' camp.		" Papanui suburb ", The Press, 25 July 1931, p 8
Menzies Bay	McIntosh Bay	Formerly McIntosh Bay. Named after Alexander "Sandy" McIntosh (1799-1881). Re-named Menzies Bay. Named after John Henry Menzies (1840-1919).	Banks Peninsula	McIntosh was a pre-Adamite, meaning he arrived in Canterbury before December 1850. He was a dairy farmer and cheesemaker. McIntosh Bay was named by officers of the Acheron who visited Banks Peninsula in 1848-1851 during the first hydrographical survey of New Zealand coast and were entertained by McIntosh. The captain was John Lort Stokes (1811?-1885). McIntosh Bay is first mentioned in the Lyttelton Times in 1853. Re-named Menzies Bay by 1900. Menzies designed and		" Shipping news ", Lyttelton Times, 6 August 1853, p 6 " Mackintosh (Menzies) Bay ", Akaroa Mail and Banks Peninsula Advertiser, 13 June 1913, p 2 " Early peninsula days ", Akaroa and Banks Peninsula Advertiser, 3 December 1937, p 2	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: Mac218 & M330 " Obituary ", The Press, 13 February 1919, p 9 The story of Menzies Bay, Banks Peninsula

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				built the stone church at the east end head of Little Akaroa Bay, carving and painting the interior woodwork, paying for most of the material and labour and assisting in the duties of the minister.
Merivale		Named after Merevale, near Atherston in Warwickshire.		Mrs Charlotte Jackson, née Kirke, widow of the Rev. Francis Arthur Jackson (d. 1844), bought Rural Section 105, 100 acres in Papanui Road in 1850. She settled there in 1851 and named her property Merevale after Merevale in England where her brother-in-law, the Rev. Thomas Jackson, was vicar. Merevale, the property of Mrs Arthur Jackson, is advertised for rent in the Lyttelton Times in 1859. William Sefton Moorhouse (1825?-1881)	Studhome Street	Province of Canterbury. New Zealand: list of sections purchased to April 30, 1863, p 3 "Rural Sections chosen", The Lyttelton Times, 1 March 1851, p 6 The Blain Biographical Directory of Anglican Clergy in the Pacific "Advertisements", Lyttelton Times, 4 May 1859, p 5 "Advertisements", The Lyttelton Times, 22 December 1860, p 6	The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 309 [It is suggested there that Studholme named his home after his birthplace in England. His death notice says he was the son of "John Studholme, of Morton House, Cumberland".] "Died", Otago Daily Times, 3 October 1866, p 4 "Death", Star, 18

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				bought 50 acres from her and built a 21-room house, Merevale House. His brother James William Moorhouse (1832-1866) sold the lease of the property in 1860. By 1869 Merivale House was the home of John Studholme (1829-1903) and his wife, Lucy Ellen Sykes Studholme, née Moorhouse, (1838?-1926), a sister of William and Thomas Moorhouse.		“Advertisements”, Star, 7 October 1869, p 4 St Mary’s in Merivale: a history of Merivale and the Anglican parish of Merivale, Christchurch, and the ministry of its fifteen vicars from 1866 to 2000, p 16	March 1903, p 3 St Albans: from swamp to suburb: an informal history, p 12
Merivale Reserve			39 Rugby Street and 40 Office Road.	In 1998 the council bought a large property at 39 Rugby Street for a reserve, and at the same time authorised the securing of an option to purchase the neighbouring property in Office Road. This property was bought in 1999.		Fendalton/Waimairi Community Board agenda 1 August 2000

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Millbrook Reserve		Named after Millbrook, the house built for himself there by Joseph Cornish Helmore (1832-1920) in 1862. The house was probably named because the Avon River ran past the Carlton Mill.	Between Helmore Lane and Rossall Street.	The reserve was formerly part of the tow-path running alongside the Avon River. In 1876 Helmore accepted it in exchange for a strip of land he gave for the road now known as Helmore Lane. The Helmore family planted many of the original trees in the reserve before their estate was subdivided in 1921 and a third of a hectare fronting the river became a Crown reserve. Richard Bedward "Riverbank" Owen (1873-1948), a prominent Christchurch tailor and civic personality, developed the site by establishing a River Improvement Fund in 1922 with government grants and funding from local citizens and	Helmore Lane	Rich man, poor man, environmentalist, thief, p 50 "Millbrook Reserve", The Press, 28 January 1924, pp 5 & 28	The Cyclopedia of New Zealand, Vol 3, p 245 "Mr Joseph C. Helmore", Ashburton Guardian, 27 December 1920, p 5 "Obituary", The Press, 27 December 1920, p 6 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: H416 "R. B. Owen; an appreciation", The Press, 27 November 1948, p 8

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
				businesses. Unemployed men were then paid to work on improving the river banks. Millbrook Reserve was officially opened on 26 January 1924.
Mill Island		Also known as Lane's Mill Island. Once the site of a flour mill.	An island below the Hereford Street bridge.	There are three other small islands in the Avon River: one between Little Hagley Park and Carlton Mill Road, one between the Montreal Street and Cashel Street bridges, and one known as Rat Island. Named in 1898.	Rat Island	Summary of parks, playgrounds, open spaces and reserves, p 20 "News of the day", Press, 9 March 1898, p 5 "City Beautifying Association", Star, 9 March 1898, p 4	"Beautifying Christchurch", The Lyttelton Times , 23 August 1902, p 3

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Milns Estate		Named after John Miln (1827-1900).	Halswell	Miln played an important role in the development of Canterbury, including serving on the Canterbury Provincial Council. Named in 2000.		“Milns Estate”, The Press, 4 September 2000, p 29	Actions and reactions September 2000 G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: M442 “ Death ”, The Press, 3 February 1900, p 1 “ Obituary ”, The Press, 5 February 1900, p 3 “Some Halswell pioneers”, Halswell Courier , Vol 4, No 1, February 1958, p 9

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Moa-bone Cave			On the route to Sumner just to the east of the Causeway and to the south of the beginning of Main Road.	Inhabited by Māori several centuries ago and the site of a pioneer excavation by Sir Julius von Haast and staff of the Canterbury Museum in the 1870s. First mentioned in the Star in 1874 in a report of a meeting of the Philosophical Institute. Now closed to the public. A bronze plaque fixed to rock wall of Moa Bone Cave just inside the entrance gives an account of the cave's long human and archaeological history. It was installed by the Sumner-Redcliffs Historical Society in 1980.		"The Caves: interesting Māori relics", Early Christchurch and Canterbury : newspaper clippings ca 1923-1950, Vol 2, p 171 "Stanley Moncks of Moncks Bay, pioneer farmer and sportsman" The Press, 28 February 1976, p 11 "A settlement's growth over 70 years", The Press, 6 March 1976, p 12	" Philosophical Institute ", Star, 23 December 1874, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Moncks Bay		Named after John Stanley Monck (1845-1929).		Monck was born at Coley Park, Reading and emigrated to Lyttelton in 1863. He owned the upper portions of Lake Coleridge station 1864-1869. He later lived at Moncks Bay for nearly forty years and owned much of what later became Redcliffs. He was also one of the founders and the first president of the Christchurch Sailing Club. He married Emma Tomes, daughter of Thomas Bennett Tomes (1821?-1875).		“Obituary”, The Press, 4 September 1929, p 4 “Stanley Monck of Moncks Bay, pioneer farmer and sportsman”, The Press, 28 February 1976, p 11 “A settlement’s growth over 70 years”, The Press, 6 March 1976, p 12	G R Macdonald dictionary of Canterbury biographies: M305

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Monro Park		Named after Thomas Erie Hugh Monro (1898-1932).	Garlands Road	Monro, son of Captain Hugh Monro, chairman of the Lyttelton Harbour Board, was manager of the Canterbury Steam Shipping Company. He lived at Aynsley Terrace, Opawa. He drowned at Waikuku Beach in 1932 while saving his brother-in-law from drowning. A memorial tablet was unveiled during the diamond jubilee celebrations of the Opawa School in November 1932. The circular stone arch at the entrance collapsed in the 13 June 2011 earthquake.			"Mr T. H. E. Munro's death", The Press, 14 January 1932, p 3 "Drowning at Waikuku", The Press, 21 January 1932, p 3 "Opawa School", The Press, 5 November 1932, p 25 "Q&A", The Press, 15 October 2015, p A7

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Montgomery Park Scenic Reserve	Montgomery Park	Named after William Hugh Montgomery (1866-1958).	Summit Road	Montgomery donated this native bush reserve to the Wairewa County Council in 1941. The park was named after him to recognise this gift. It was also named in memory of his father, the Hon William Montgomery (1821?-1914), as a tribute to his services to the district and the Dominion in public affairs.	Montgomery Spur	“ Gift to Wairewa County ”, The Press, 2 January 1941, p 5	Notes on my life Letters of Jane Todhunter, artist View the biography of William Montgomery in the Dictionary of New Zealand Biography . Montgomery Park Scenic Reserve

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Montgomery Spur		Named after John Montgomery (1874-1946).	Port Hills between Rapaki Track and the Avoca Valley.	Montgomery was the son of the Hon. William Montgomery (1821?-1914) and brother of William Hugh Montgomery (1866-1958). He was a seed exporter who farmed land on the Port Hills from 1927 and was also chairman of directors of the Christchurch Press Company Ltd. His son John (Jock) farmed the Port Hills property from 1946.	Montgomery Park Scenic Reserve	"Public get chance to speak on spur", The star midweek, 7 November 2007, p. A2	Notes on my life Letters of Jane Todhunter, artist "Obituary", The Press, 20 September 1946, p 8
Morgan's Valley		Named after Captain Morgan. Also known as Scott's Valley.	The "short valley directly below Mt Cavendish and Mt Pleasant."	Morgan was one of the pioneer settlers. His home was still there in 1920 at the head of the valley. The house was built of large slabs of Welsh slate brought from England.		"Place names", The Star, 4 December 1920, p 9 (written by H. G. Ell)

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Morice Scenic Reserve		Named because it was developed on the site of the Morice Settlement which, in turn, was named after Dr Charles George Frederick Morice 1868-1966) who married Louisa Jane Spotswood "Louie" Seddon (1872-1957) in 1898. She was the daughter of Richard John Seddon, Prime Minister of New Zealand 1893-1906.	Banks Peninsula	Dr Morice was the second superintendent of the Greymouth Hospital. The Morice Settlement was named to honour the connection of the Morice name with the Prime Minister.	Morice Settlement	Information researched by Richard Greenaway in 2015.	"Obituary", Evening Post, 15 September 1966, p 19 "Dr Chas. Morice has died at age of 98", Argus Leader, 16 September 1966

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Morrison Avenue Reserve			Morrison Avenue, Papanui	The reserve was developed on land formerly 26 and 28 Morrison Avenue, south of the bowling green on the avenue between Sawyers Arms and Langdons roads. It was officially blessed and opened on 5 August 2006. Two plaques were also unveiled. The reserve had been the dream of Yvonne Palmer, chairperson of the City Council's Shirley/Papanui Community Board, and also fellow and past board members since about 1991.	Morrison Avenue	Shirley/ Papanui Community Board agenda 19 April 2006 Shirley/Papanui Community Board agenda 3 May 2006

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Motukarara	Rabbit Island	Formerly Rabbit Island. Named by the early European settlers. Re-named Motukarara.		The Rabbit Island Railway Station was opened on 11 March 1886 and its name was changed to Motukarara on 1 November 1900. The Post Office was opened January 1895 and known as Motukarara.		The Reed dictionary of New Zealand place names, p 324 Place-names of Banks Peninsula: a topographical history, p 132 "Mail Notices", Star, 23 October 1900, p 1 New Zealand Post Offices : an alphabetical list of every Post Office and Telephone/graph Office opened in New Zealand, with community activity, location, and period open. Includes a record on name changes, alternate names, and errors, p 149

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Mount Cavendish Scenic Reserve		Named after Lord Richard Cavendish (1794-1876).	At the top of the Heathcote Valley.	Cavendish was a member of the Canterbury Association. A scenic reserve of nearly 19 acres given to the public by Richard May Downes Morten (1877-1950) and his brother, Arthur Roscoe Vernon Morten (1878-1931). Named by the Admiralty survey party that made a marine survey of Canterbury in the early 1850s.		" Place names ", The Star, 27 November 1920, p 9 (written by H. G. Ell)	The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections, p 26 "Death of Mr A. V. R. Morten", The Press, 13 April 1931, p 14
Mount Herbert		Named after Sidney Herbert, 1st Baron Herbert of Lea (1810-1861).	Banks Peninsula	Herbert was a member of the Canterbury Association from 20 March 1848. He was Secretary of State for the Colonies in 1855. He never came to New Zealand. First mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1851.		The Canterbury Association: a study of its members' connections, p 54 "Mr. Torlesse's report upon the Canterbury block", The Lyttelton Times, 5 July 1851, p 7	John Robert Godley of Canterbury

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Mount Pleasant		Named by the HMS Pegasus when it made a survey of the sea coast of Canterbury.		The Canterbury Association surveyor, Captain Joseph Thomas (b. 1803?) visited the area immediately after arriving in December 1848. The area was already called Mount Pleasant. The name thus predates the establishment of the Canterbury Settlement. First mentioned in The Lyttelton Times in 1851.		Early Canterbury runs , p 59 “ Advertisements ”, The Lyttelton Times, 20 September 1851, p 1 “ Mount Pleasant ”, The Press, 7 March 1912, p 4 “ Place names ”, The Star, 4 December 1920, p 9 (written by H. G. Ell)	“Mt Pleasant and the Hornbrooks”, The Press, 27 December 1969, p 5
Mt Pleasant Scenic Reserve			Covers the summit of Mount Pleasant.	A scenic reserve of over 13 acres given to the public by Richard May Downes Morten (1877-1950) and his brother, Arthur Roscoe Vernon Morten (1878-1931).		Early Canterbury runs , p 59 “Place names”, The Star, 4 December 1920, p 9 (written by H. G. Ell).	“Mt Pleasant and the Hornbrooks”, The Press, 27 December 1969, p 5 "Death of Mr A. V. R. Morten" , The Press, 13 April 1931, p 14

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Muir Park		Named after John Edward "Jack" Muir (1867?-1950).	Halswell Road	Muir was a nurseryman. His family had owned the land where the park is situated from 1928. When the Muir Estate was subdivided by Christchurch Suburban Estates, the land was offered to the council as the reserve contribution. Efforts were made in 1973-1974 and 1979 to save the 10-room wooden homestead on the land for use as a community centre but it was demolished in 1979. In 1983 the park was declared a "passive" area with a playground for small children only.		A history of the horticultural trades: nurserymen, seedsmen, landscape gardeners and florists in Canterbury 1851-1950, p 25 A short history of Halswell "Residents battle over Muir Park", The Press, 10 July 1981, p 13	"Muir Pk trees not threatened", The Press, 22 July 1981, p 16 "Battle over park's future", The Press, 11 February 1982, p 4 "Participation urged in park planning", The Press, 29 March 1982, p 2 "Plans for adventure playground scrapped", The Press, 23 July 1982, p 4 "Pupils plant tree", The Press, 24 June 1983, p 2

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Murchison Park		Named after Donald Sinclair Murchison (1891-1979).	Lowry Avenue	Murchison, a solicitor, was a Fellow of Christ's College 1928-1959. Originally to be called West-Watson Park or Hornsby Park. In 1973, at the request of Christ's College, the Waimairi County Council changed its decision on naming the reserve, naming it Murchison Park. Developed on land formerly belonging to the school.	Creese Place, Denniston Crescent, Goodall Place, Jenkins Avenue, Lowry Avenue, Monteath Place, Pyatt Place, Solomon Avenue, Strack Place and Wakelin Place.	"West-Watson Park", The Press, 14 September 1957, p 4 "Not happy on staff names", The Papanui Herald, 13 March 1973, p 7 "Name sought for proposed park", The Papanui Herald, 10 April 1973, p 3 "'Clean zone' warning", The Press, 18 May 1973, p 12	"Mr D. S. Murchison dead", The Press, 4 May 1979, p 4

Christchurch Place Names: A - M

Current name	Former name	Origin of name	Where	Additional information	See	Source	Related sources
Murray Aynsley Hill	Murray Aynsley's Hill	Named after Hugh Percy Murray-Aynsley (1828-1917).	On the fringes of the Port Hills.	Murray-Aynsley was a runholder and chairman of the New Zealand Directors of the New Zealand Shipping Company. He was also the member for Lyttelton in the Provincial Council. Murray-Aynsley's Hill is first mentioned in the Star in 1886.	Aynsley Drive and Riverlaw Terrace.	The Port Hills of Christchurch , p 168 “ Cycling ”, Star, 20 September 1886, p 4 "The settlement of Murray Aynsley Hill", The Press, 5 April 1975, p 11 “Suburb names and derivations”, The Christchurch Mail , 13 April 1999, p 11	" What's in a name ", Sun, 7 April 1914, p 3 “ Obituary ”, The Press, 23 February 1917, p 3